Not only can't we see any changes in the enemy camps...
Yes, your judgement is accurate.

...So he's been defeated...

Tsk..!!
It can't be helped. We can only continue our mission as is.
...I agree...
...This is rather peculiar... Even though there was no basis for Mamoru winning to begin with, there was something with him that made you think, just maybe...
ブオオオ

第203話

.....
What?
That's why we're asking!
Hm? I more or less know that she headed out earlier with one of our vehicles, but...
Hasn't she come back yet?
Don't you know anything about Haruka's whereabouts?

Actually... Well, I was outfitting my bike the entire time, so—I thought it was the usual inspection, but... She also gave another errand to Senji-san, so he didn't drive her.
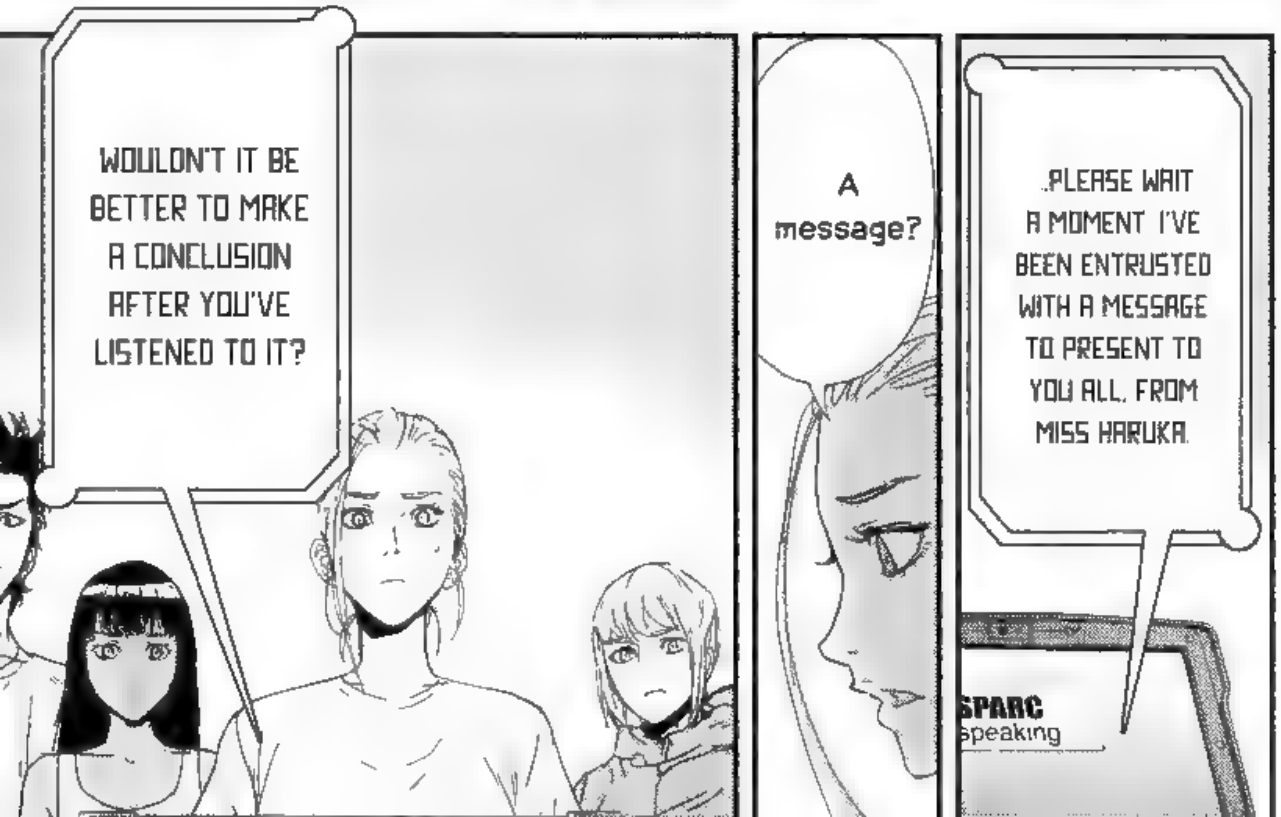
Oh yeah! Try asking SPARC!
Then you're saying that girl went on her own to Zasid!?
SPARC speaking
.....
...NO... JESUS ACCOMPANIED HER AS SUPPORT.

.....
...Didn't I tell you that I'd follow you anywhere!?
How could that happen!?
ガク
.....
.....
My my...
She's been fairly happy-go-lucky since we came all the way here, hasn't she? She's totally not qualified to be a leader.
H-Hey...

And yet, without saying a thing, she brought along an outsider, of all peop.e!
Isn't she being irrational!?
Whaaat? Am I wrong?

while you all went along with her, believing that she had some reason for doing such a thing!!?
...Isn't she being disrespectful to all of you,



WOULDN'T IT BE BETTER TO MAKE A CONCLUSION AFTER YOU'VE LISTENED TO IT?
A message?
.PLEASE WAIT A MOMENT I'VE BEEN ENTRUSTED WITH A MESSAGE TO PRESENT TO YOU ALL. FROM MISS HARUKA.
SPARC
Speaking

.....
7"000"
What are you planning to do!?
Your body's not in the condition to be fighting him on your own right now.
I'm taking you back to your comrades.

...I ain't stopping. I don't wanna know, but I understand your feelings right now quite well.
I don't need help.
If you're going to do that, just drop me off here.
Kuh-ガタッ
...Despite being unable to move...

I'm begging you! Start the engine, SPARC!
SPARC speaking
I CANNOT カチャッ
...Fine...
NO MATTER HOW I TAKE THIS ACTION INTO ACCOUNT I AM FEARFUL FOR YOUR LIFE
I CANNOT LEAD YOU SOMEWHERE IF IT WOULD CONTRADICT MY OWN DEFINITION OF SURVIVAL.
I'll drive myself.
You won't stop me that way, right?
...NO. MISS [redacted].
AS FORCING UNACCUSTOMED DRIVING CONDITIONS WOULD ALSO BE HAZARDOUS..
SPARC speaking

Sensei!?
バン
...But—
I'll take you there.
ドカッ
I don't know what you plan to do, but this is what you've chosen after graduating
I won't say anything. Is that satisfactory? In addition—

I'm forced to stay home everyday to care for my mother, who has been sick for over 15 years.

Didn't you do that graduation ceremony as a means to show your resolve?
...Sensei... I'm sorry.
I'm going for an inspection!
ブォォォ

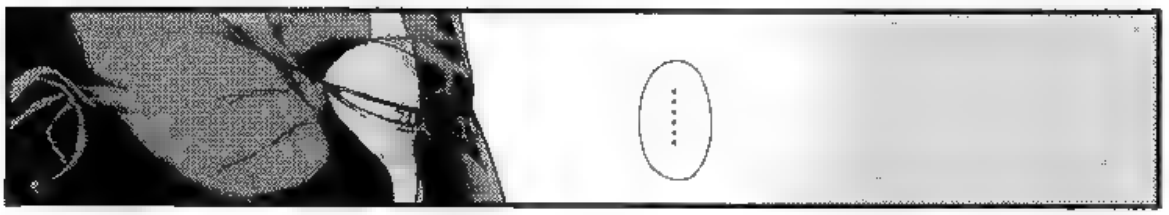
.....
.....
.....
...That stupid girl... Despite heading out to Hell on her own...
Telling me not to die –
Because you keep saying whatever you want.. Next time we meet up, I'm definitely giving you a beating, interrogating you until you cry, and making you apologize –
So!?
..Do you have a method of beating the guy?
This guy's definitely okay!
.....

So you can't admit there isn't, even if you don't have one, huh?
I do.
Now that Haruka's told me to go rescue her.

バ バ バ バ バ



.....

I don't know your aim, but...
Risking your life by throwing it down to save such a man...

I called out for Mamoru-san at the exact instant he would've definitely lost his concentration!
Had I not done that, even you wouldn't have left unharmed!

...Oh..?
Unfortunately, I have no words to describe what kind of reasoning he has for becoming distracted in the midst of battle, except "inexperience."
.....

Please take back what you just said.
Do you think that just because you're a girl,
such defiance will be permissible by me?
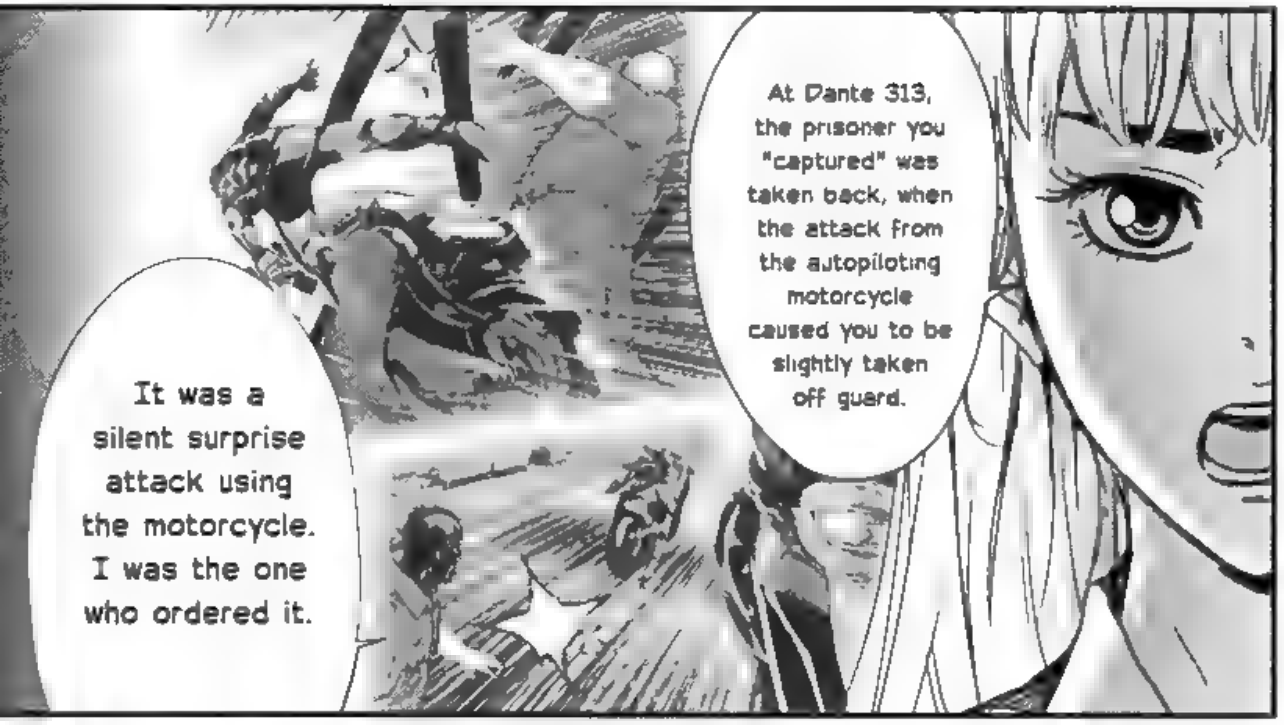
I'm not being defiant.
I'm simply speaking the truth.

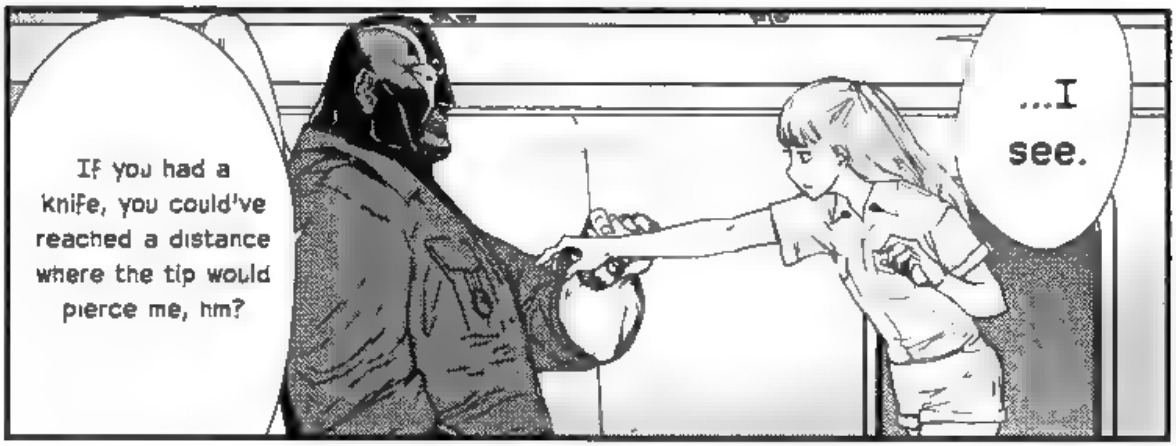
No matter who it is, there will always be a moment where you can make an opening!
Say, even for you!
Oh? Then how would you prove such a thing?



At Dante 313, the prisoner you "captured" was taken back, when the attack from the autopiloting motorcycle caused you to be slightly taken off guard.
It was a silent surprise attack using the motorcycle. I was the one who ordered it.

But the attack didn't reach me.
If you believe in my foresight, then that serves as proof.
ガッ

カッ
Ugh-



If you had a knife, you could've reached a distance where the tip would pierce me, hm?
...I see.

If he could be filled with just that, he'd definitely stand a chance.
The difference between you and Mamoru-san is how simple your characters are You're even more of a concern than that samurai precisely because you lack killing intent.

I see. That's quite terrifying

You're saying... an ordinary man can surpass that difference?
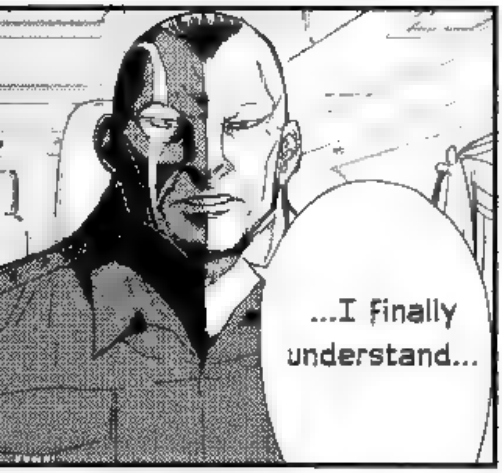
I'm looking forward to it.



...I finally understand...

Mamoru-san himself will prove that to you!

So assaulting Dante 313 was also intended to protect that samurai.
Being at an impasse, you wanted to prevent him from standing before me.

Consequently, they couldn't stop you from personally appearing before me, it seems.
And afterwards, your plan of disrupting us wouldn't go as expected for the changes made in Wiseman's strategy.

That's quite amazing...

If that man challenges me again, it will be for nothing.

The capture of a little girl who couldn't do anything to stop him half a year ago, makes an unbelievable strategy...
Yet, even with that long-awaited hope...

...That's-

Simply because that man cannot physically surpass me.
Not only is he incapable of superhuman movement, he's also limited by his lack of superior senses, like your "foresight."
It's beyond his power being able to touch me with a sword. That is, if he can't use some sort of magic!

……

バ゛バ゛バ゛バ゛バ゛

That's our capital city, Zott.
You can see that it's your fate.

... That's ...

What's up?

!!!

This is-

...Oh..?

The order to capture Tooyama Haruka was simultaneously withdrawn by each area's forces.

!?

Eh ..!?

It means capture is no longer necessary.

What does that mean?

What's more, with this timing, it's natural to think that Hijikata is involved.

As you guessed.

Hm?

If it's come to this—

How are you coming to that conclusion!?

You don't need to worry about that.

And we can use him for our upcoming plans.

Hijikata Mamoru is alive.

.....!

Ehh..!?

Heheheh-

...Again!?

I'll explain my conjecture to you later.

Also... I think we need a change of plans.

We will now enter the incubation period!

We will now quietly watch for any developments that may arise, and emerge only at the critical moment!

Simply put, we must not misread the timing!

I thought that this would happen, so I came to your rescue.
You're mistaken, Taos.

...Actually,
I should cut to the chase when it comes to Taos...

...My rescue?
You're going to personally put me on trial to shame me?
No.

Flashy words would only leave doubts.

It's come to the point where our father drove me out of office.

I've failed as well.

To put it frankly,

You're the only family member I can rely on right now!

Why don't you join forces with me?

Are you going to just sit here captured, waiting for death!?

Or are you planning to be disposed of after waiting for the old man to pursue you!?

Those are your three choices!

Or will you join forces and fight with me?!

Bravo Team is also coming to Galboa with a formation made primarily of white members.

Charlie and Delta Team consist of all other races, so they will infiltrate the Dhana end.

What are the other teams' arrangements?

Is this "Zasid" as dangerous as the rumours claim?

...I'd think even moreso than the rumours...

Plus, it seems like 90% of the people who get involved don't come back.

Woah!!

America's pulling some strings from behind, so he's one of the few people we're unable to eliminate.

And the other 10% don't recover.

Woah

Nonetheless, with "America's dignity," they deviated a little from the proper course in order to correct things.

...I don't know... I've heard they're part of the Axis of Evil, but...

But, why is such a small country involving so many sacrifices and people?

but our operation this time is a single part of our strategy against the TPC, until the bitter end.

There may be other reasons,

I know.

Hey! I said I know!

...Come in...

Please excuse me.

ガチャ

However..
There is a little–

What is the problem?

The current examination results clearly show that Tooyama Haruka is of sound mind and body.

Report.

That girl is still a child,
not a "woman,"
Zasid.

However,
whether or not to use a rather unprecedented thing on such a precious existence...
Without your approval...

Of course, if we were to administer an ovulation-inducing drug, stimulating ovulation would be possible.

For her age in particular, the primordial follicle is the closest, so if we use
the latest technology, experimentation would be possible with little burden on her.

I don't know what sort of particular ability she possesses, but I'm not sure whether it would have some kind of side effect

Simply put, as a doctor, I am against it. As a scientist, I would certainly give it a try.

……

State your opinion as a doctor.

As a woman myself, I am strongly against it.

Also...

Yes?

Is the TPC's cloning technology incapable?

Naturally I've considered that, but... It's still functionally incomplete.

I will bear this in mind.

Even aside from the possibility that she might never be able to give birth normally in the future.

Furthermore, the issue isn't so much with the body, but with the mind's influence.

If you factor in the time spent for education as well as raising the child, so much time is spent that practically nothing varies.

The likelihood of that is less than 1%.

Frankly, I don't think that girl's "foresight" is something that can be inherited or cloned.

Moreover ...

Hm?

..."Foresight" ...you say?

In other words, it's a power of perception that accidentally spawned due to a complex neuron arrangement and linkage. It's a power that can likely be treated as a kind of quantum state.

Yes.

Tooyama Haruka's foresight is a condition of her brain.

As a notion of time, if you were to perceive the "present" as a collision between "Offer Waves" from the past and "Echo Waves" from the future,

...Are you saying that even if we cloned the arrangement of her cranial nerves, they wouldn't grow the same?

Consider Offer and Echo Waves as information wavefronts propagating through a field of time (Book: The DNA Field and the Law of Resonance)

So to speak, its origin can be thought of as a practically spontaneous condition that isn't hereditary.

that girl's unique brain condition allows her to grasp circumstances from the past and then somehow perceive circumstances coming from waves a little in the future.

it justifies her witnessing that future first.

With that said, as she remembers herself the most in the past,

It's because I can't help but try, even if it's a less than 1% chance.

Think of it as a "Turus family tradition."

But if that's the case, what is the goal behind using her against her will?

...Yet since we aren't specialists in that field, we can't comprehend it...

In order to protect this minor power from the more advanced nations, a superior leader is necessary.

It's certain that in the near future, the international disparity of wealth will further grow.

Doesn't the disparity of wealth that exists between the two countries contradict?

Human beings are contraditory beings in the first place.

At the very least, even if I, Zasid Turus, am not quite capable, both Galboa and Duhana will be devoured by me.

Even you, to begin with, were seen as a genius doctor and yet was forcefully taken away.

Did you not obey me, grudgingly?

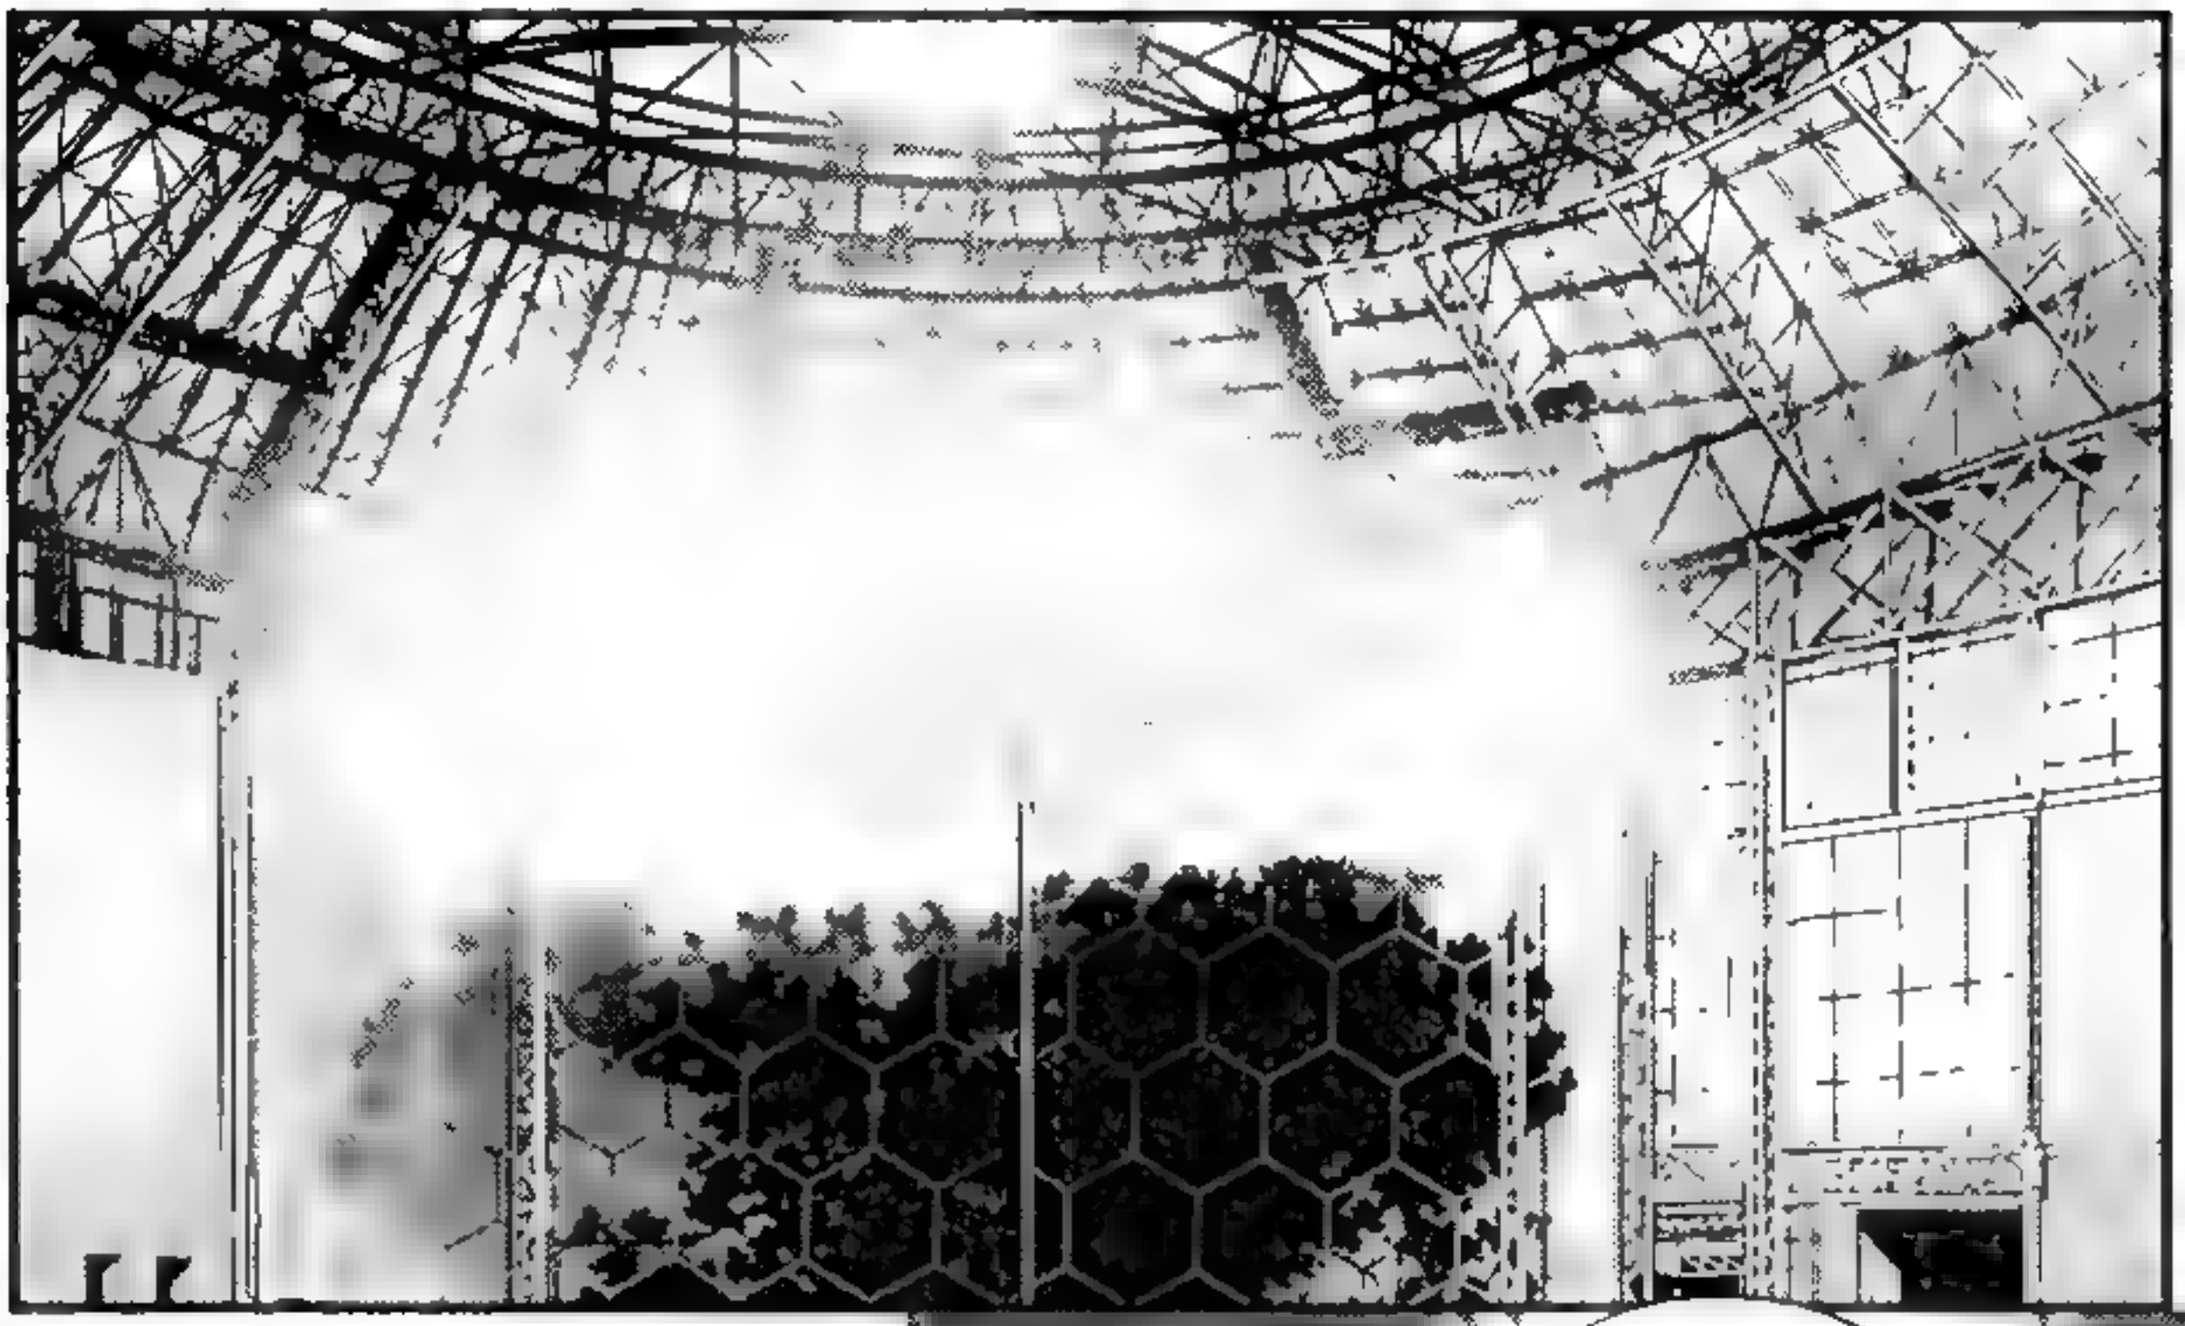
Even one as superior as I cannot comprehend that, out of all the contradictions in the world.

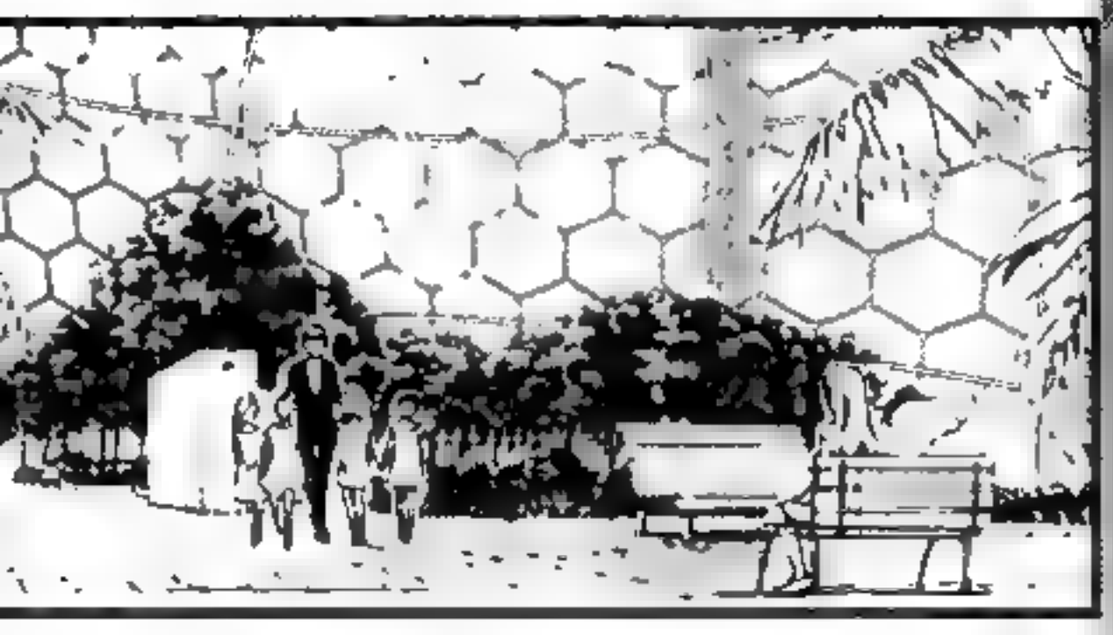
Yes, it was honestly rather mysterious.

ホッ

The only issue is whether it will take a long time or not.

In the end, if a country becomes rich, its people will approve.





I'm forced to stay home everyday to care for my mother, who has been sick for over 15 years.
If you love my releases, please consider donating at KireiCake.com to support our livelihood

A "rare existence."
A "mosaic!"
Isn't it a tattoo?

It's just that a difference in colour makes it easy to differentiate the genders of animals or insects so they can mate with one another.
Nope.
...A gender mosaic?

Hijikata Mamoru was injured,
but his condition is not critical.
He is currently moving with Jesus.

...Yes...

This may be house arrest, but I will promise you reasonable freedom. Until the day comes, pass the time peacefully.

That is my daughter, Urara.

The child of one of my wives that is of Japanese descent. As she can speak Japanese, I have sent her to take care of you.

...Keeping your situation in mind and surrendering yourself was truly a commendable deed.

However, no more miracles will happen from here on.

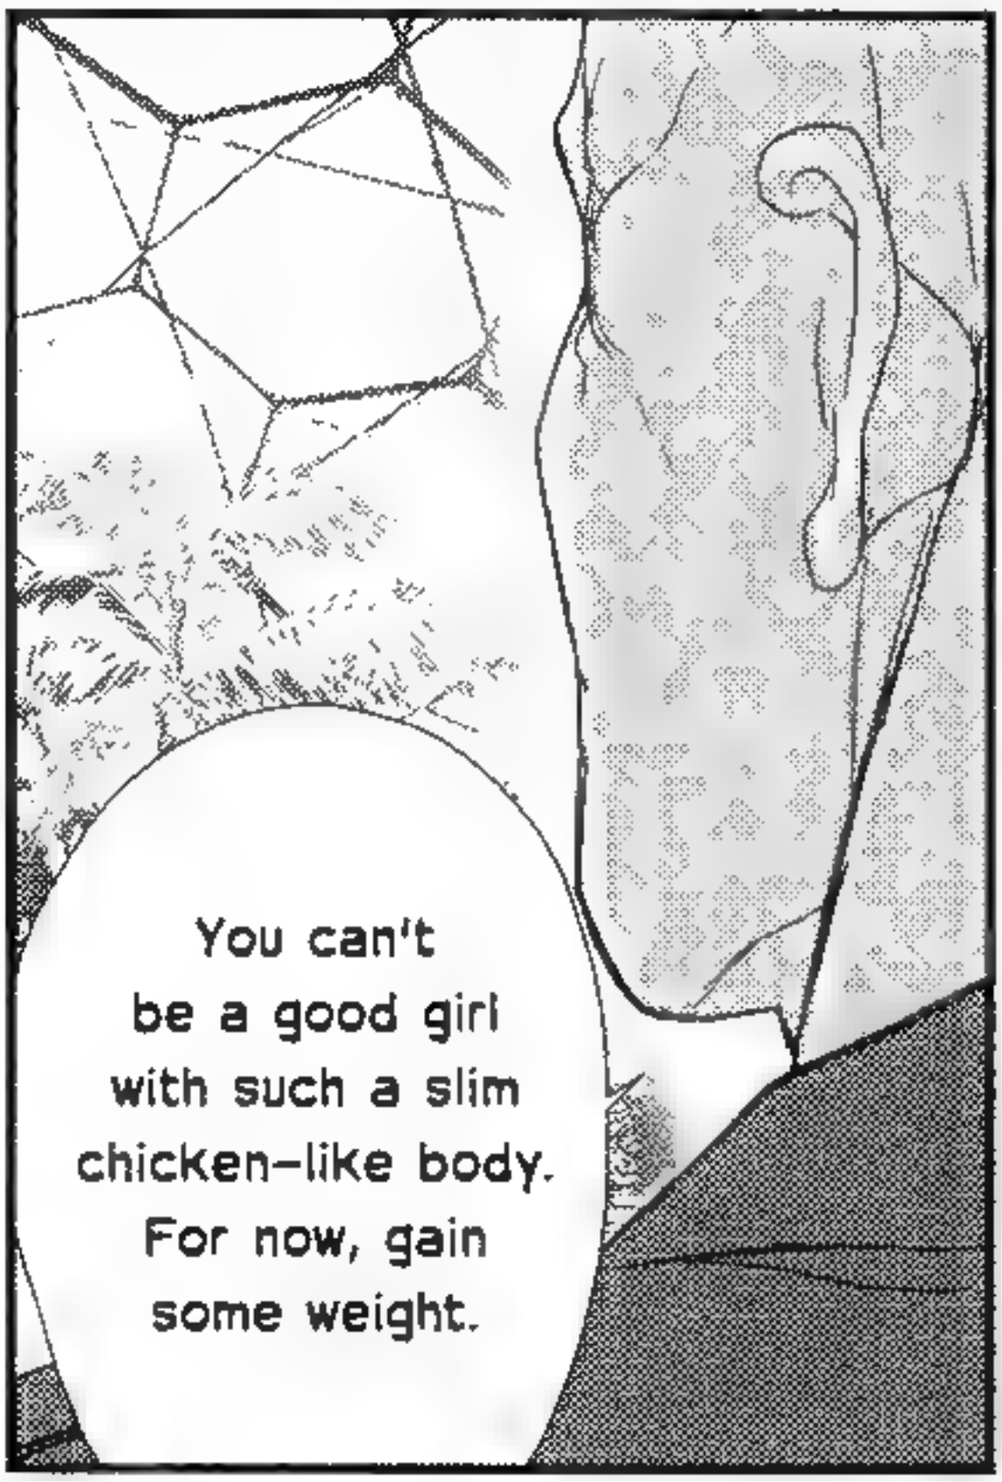
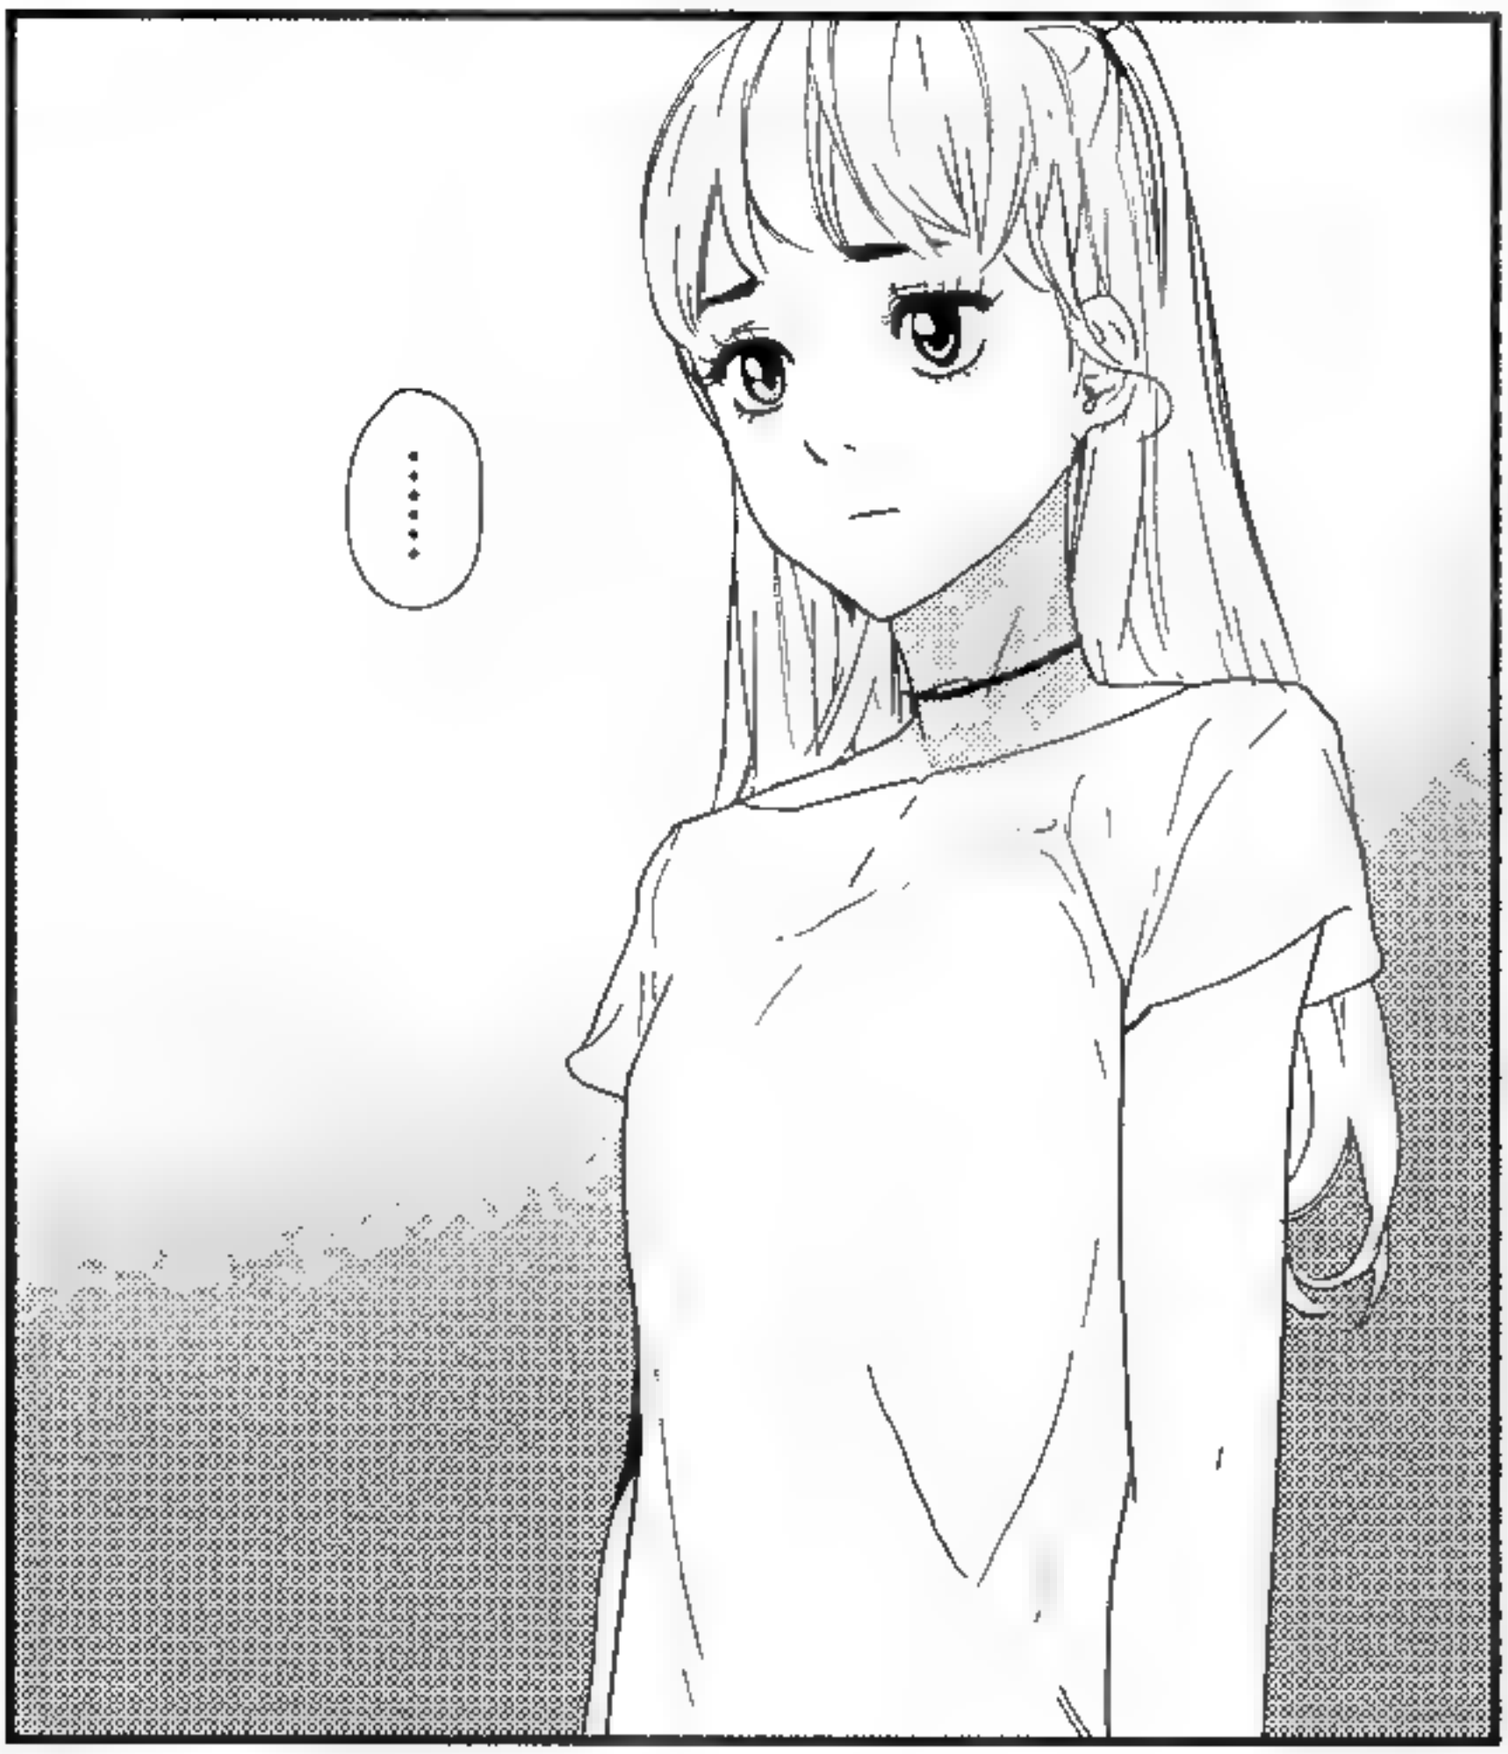
I... don't understand what you mean...



You can't be a good girl with such a slim chicken-like body. For now, gain some weight.

It's time for your meal.



……

第206話

Well then, D.A., getting straight to the point,

What kind of operation are you currently involved with?

I don't mind telling you about it, but...

Frankly, to this very day, even I haven't seen the big picture yet.

Are you shitting me!?

No... After all... It's Wise-man, isn't it?

You're probably telling the truth.

But you're not getting away with claiming that you don't know what his motive is.

As expected, that's what you want to know, hm?

In this situation, it depends on the scale of the "crime."

Regardless of whether or not I tell you, naturally, you guys will get involved either way, am I right?

.....

!?

It's the assassi-nation of Zasid Turus.

Rumour has it that it's harder to eliminate him in the underground society than it is to assassinate the leaders of every advanced country in the world.

If so, I expected that reaction.

You didn't know?

Indeed.

So now you want to tackle that conundrum then.

I'll inform you of any new intel I receive, so for now, what do you say about keeping this under wraps and going our own separate ways?

I'm in the middle of a job right now, so I can't be detained by you two any longer.

Well?

We still haven't heard anything yet-

O-oi!?

Alright...

.....

Tooyama Haruka is currently in Zasid's grasp, confined in the basement of the Governor's office.

Could you please tell us?

#ン

Nothing has happened so far, so maybe he hasn't decided how to deal with her yet.

.....

What ...!?

If you're going to worry like a grandparent and try to help with her rescue, I think you'd better do it soon.

However, it's only a matter of time.

Conveying that intel to us is also within Wiseman's plans, isnt it?

Well, are we good?

...I need to hurry and contact Juliet and the others and ask them about the particulars ...

...I see, go then...

Well then, excuse me. If fate has it, we'll meet again

He didn't specifically order me to do so, but Master always told me,

"Take advantage of every accidental encounter."

He truly is hard to deal with...

...Geez...

So what now, Captain?

Our original objective was to interfere with the TPC.

...At this rate, if we act poorly, it's obvious that we'll be taken advantage of by him...

Let alone Tooyama Haruka's rescue. Zasid Turus's assassination is beyond being simply a crime.

I don't have the honour to stop him though...

Hoho... Fascinating.

Misalt split up the army?

Heheheh– I expected that much out of him.

This is not a fascinating situation!

15% of the Major's regular soldiers have assembled under Major Misalt's command!

But–

Don't worry!

It's obvious that if I were to shake them up personally, they would separate to the point where they could be dropped through a sieve.

Even if he were to appear on the front lines, he's not a man of the field in the first place. At the end of the day, he's just a military adviser.

He lacks faith from our subordinates, so he can only gain the support of 15% of my forces.

Because that's the most he can achieve, he is not qualified to be my successor.

But, now we don't have enough commanders.

Geez, attempting to oppose me with that much popularity, he truly cracks me up.

Ultimately, I can see it going below 5%.

.....

There's only a handful of personnel in our army that can stand up against Major Misait!

Let's call back Sir Gene!

You don't care knowing that you can't handle this responsibility, right?

Certainly, if it's as you say, then there are no others capable of opposing him.

In that case...

no... that's-

No-

without needing to rely on that blockhead, you piece of trash!

I can just repress him myself

If he didn't overly commit to the Duhanian tribe from his mother's side, he too could've reasonably fought for succession...

Hmph... Gene, huh...?

No...

I'm fixed?

The remaining problem is with the nerve connect'ons, but that'll soon be adjusted by the new embedded biochip, and in a week, you'll probably regain your original movement.

It's all gone accord.ng to p.an from start to fin.sh though.

...They probably still hurt, but... they are attached to you through TPC's new discovery, BioConnection.

They'll soften up soon.

...Now I can stand before the old man...

Could you be looking to finish things off by apologizing to the o.d man?

Well, what now?

...Hmph ...

……

If a way were to exist,

How will you recover from all your failures up until now?

Yeah, I agree. Right now, you're considered the rebel army's leader, and Tooyama Haruka's already in the old man's grasp.

...No...

That'll never happen.

then it would be none other than to capture the guys who fucked you up and hand them over to the old man, right?

Well then, there's only a handful of options available, wouldn't you say?

7"

Oh, so you've woken up.
Refugees.
...Who are they?
Moreover, Misalt Turus should be starting a rebellion of his own right about now.
Ruined from the beginning, these citizens who are struggling with ..fe were forced out during Edge Turus's rebellion.

7"ooooo

That is, if Wiseman's predictions are correct.

All of them are heading towards the capital.

As are we.

The capital!?

Capital City Zott.

That's true Generally speaking, nothing would happen.

Even if they went to the capital, that doesn't mean [illegible]

Even if we suppose it's a "Pandora's Box," they have to open it.

But hey... Even now, these people have shown that it's possible to advance ever dre step from their virtually hopeless lives

...That is what Wiseman told me.

I'm forced to stay home everyday to care for my mother, who has been sick for over 15 years.

I'm sure hundreds to thousands times more people are simultaneously taking action.

What you can see is just a small population.

You're pretty sharp.

...I see... Now I get it. It's that man's undertaking, isn't it?

ゴ オ オ オ

Well there was a time when I participated in a liberation army, you know.

These people are taking action with their own agendas.

From now on, the snowball that drops from the summit of the mountains will build up snow and expand, and it roll, opening up unpredicted courses.

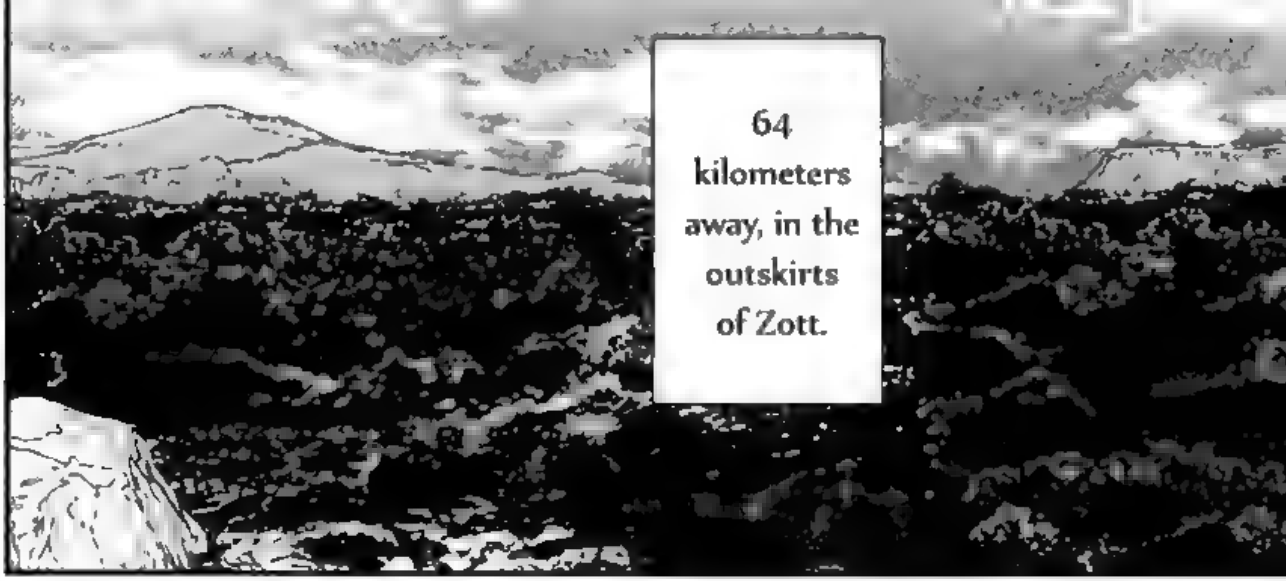
Mean-while...

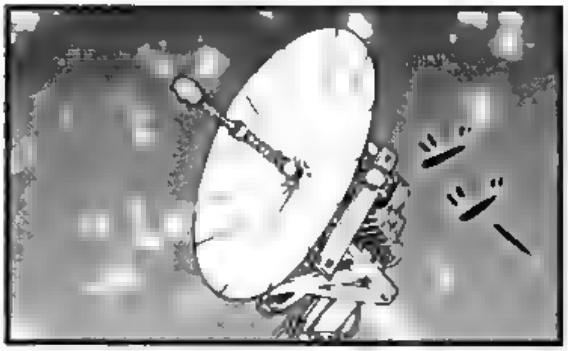
Who will reap the rewards while the others fight?

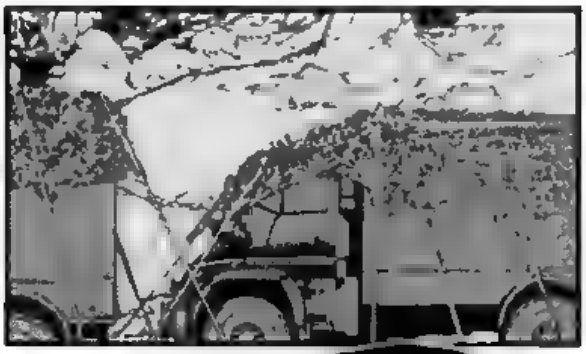
.....

第207話



64 kilometers away, in the outskirts of Zott.





...I see... So that's how it is now...

...And that's the state of affairs.

In that case, I understand why the capital city of Zott is like this now.
Duhana's broadcasts haven't had any news regarding that area.
Hm? Did something happen?
...Is that true?
Right now, Zott is in fear of the non-stop terrorist bombings.
You could say this is also part of Wiseman's plans.

With the news coming from there up until now, I can roughly guess.
...I managed to read it...
I guess all of them were for that purpose.
Also, Tooyama Haruka's impromptu directives and actions taken against Wiseman's plans...
I suspect everyone will be gathering there!
Assemble your forces and head for Zott immediately!
.....

Is it okay for us to freely go under the WALL's command?
Un... under- stood! But... we're an independent force.
But in the message she left, there wasn't an order not to, right?
If you don't want to save Tooyama Haruka, feel free.
...You saw right through, didn't you...

Plus, Hijikata Mamoru is alive.
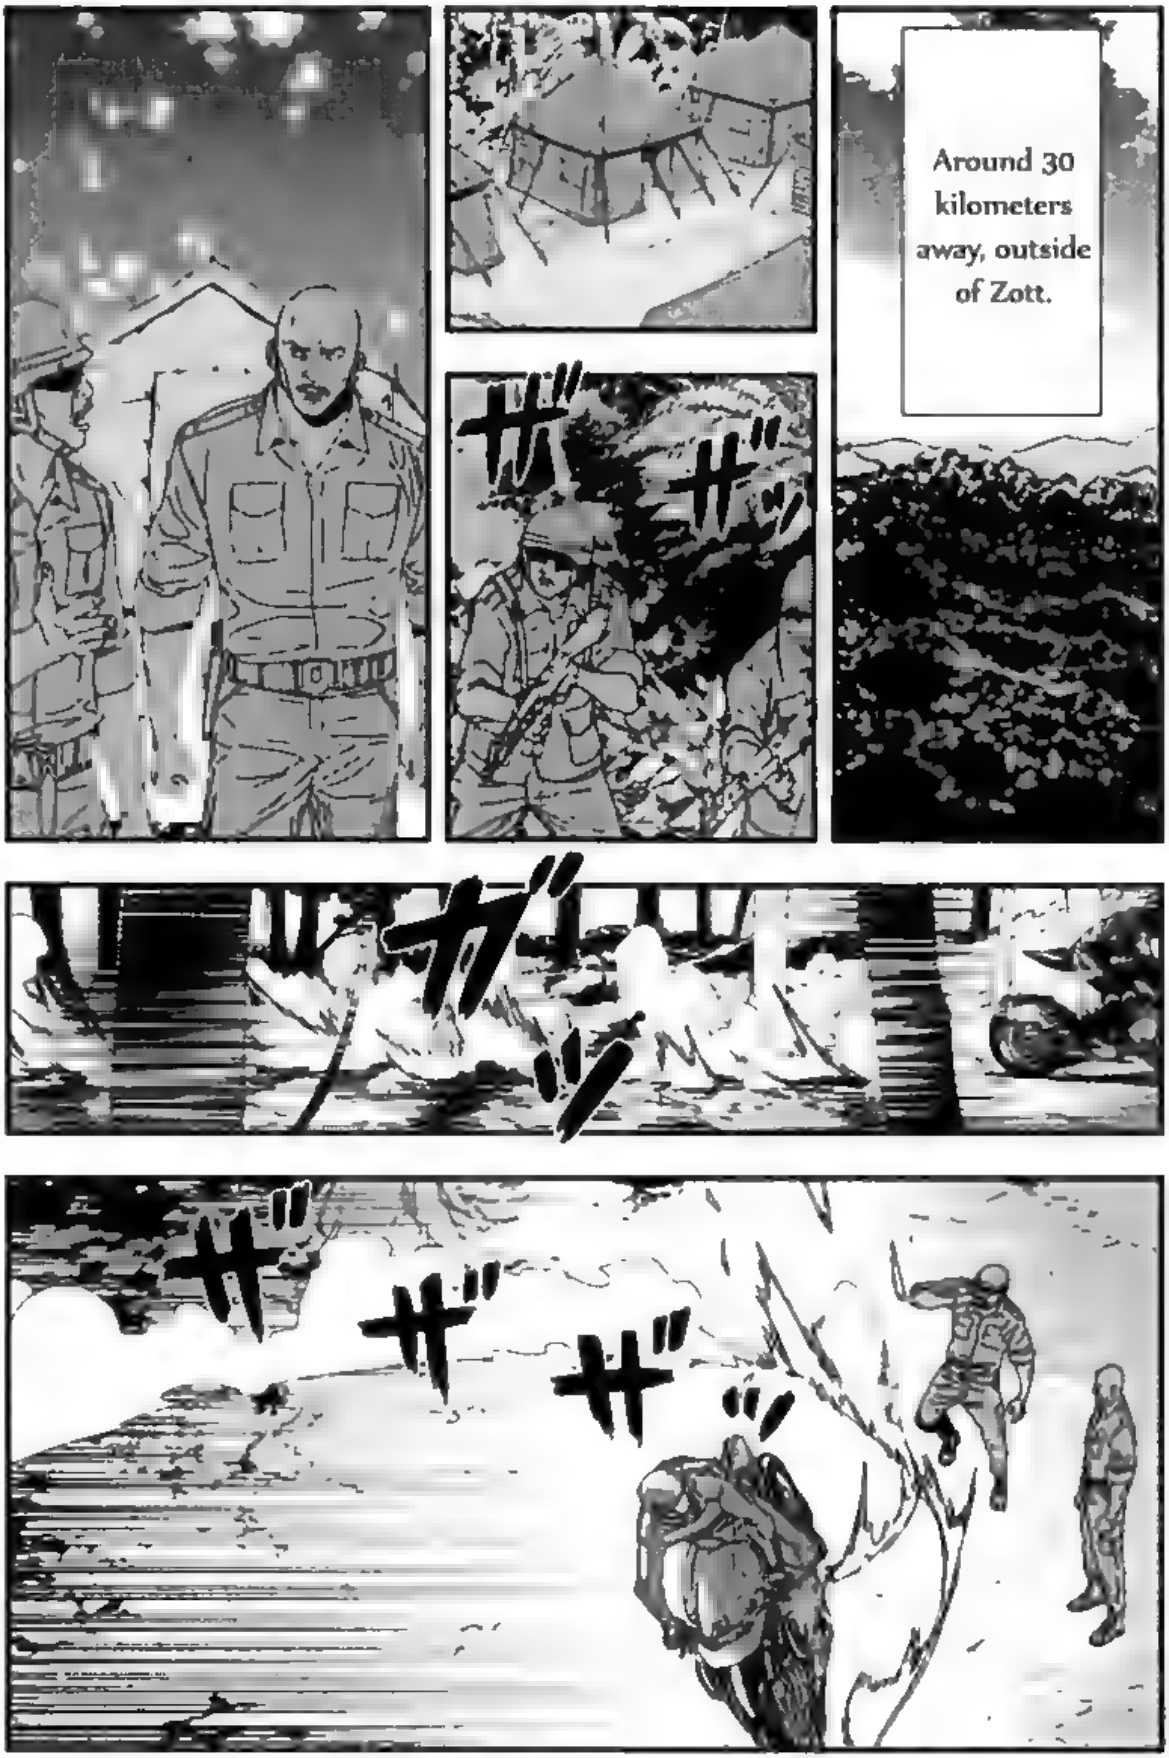
It's simple reasoning.
There's no way that girl would bring you all here just to ignore you.
We just need to do so in turn.
I don't care whether Wiseman has claimed that he'll capitalize on our actions.
However!!
.....
Until it's all over, we still have a fighting chance!

We also need to be prepared for a serious scuffle with Hijikata Mamoru and Jesus.

While Misaki's rebel army has yet to be confirmed, there have been intel circulating stating that Taos joined up with him.
Our enemies aren't just the Galboans and the TPC. There's also the collaboration between Wiseman and Trump.

This operation... will ultimately be incredibly difficult!



Around 30 kilometers away, outside of Zott.

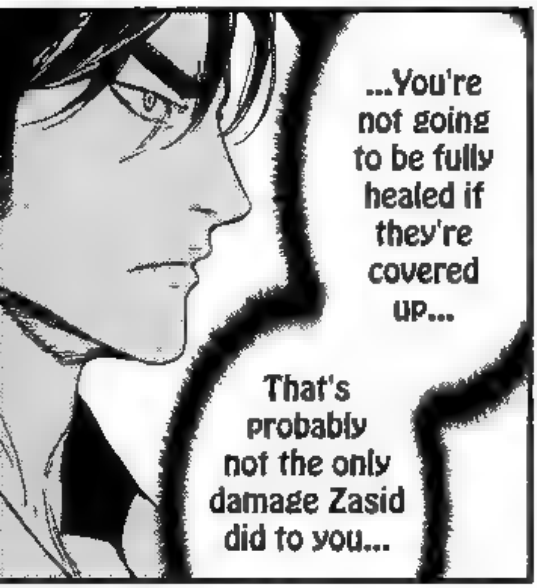
You pieces of shit!

Don't overdo it!



...You're not going to be fully healed if they're covered up...
That's probably not the only damage Zasid did to you...

It's already been three days.
My injuries are covered by the adhesives in the first-aid kit

Are you letting Haruka do as she wishes?

Saving students is my responsibility
And you. Wouldn't it be logical to just leave me be and head towards Dante 313?

Shut up and take advantage of the opportunity.
And, I have some business to take care of in Zott.
That and this are two different things.
It'll take a whole day to reach Zott Rest your body.
If you're looking to personally finish things off with Zasid at any cost, that is ...Bitter enemies, huh...?
...I don't need to be told that...
Yeah. You got it.

キ キ ン
Four kilometers away in the outskirts of Zott.
ガ
How is Zott?
The refugees are pouring in, so we can't do anything about them cowering in the streets all over and being a nuisance Terrible.

...Heheheh-
I only managed to get this much after running around a while.
Food and goods are fairly restricted too.
The weakness of a dictatorship is that there's only one leader.
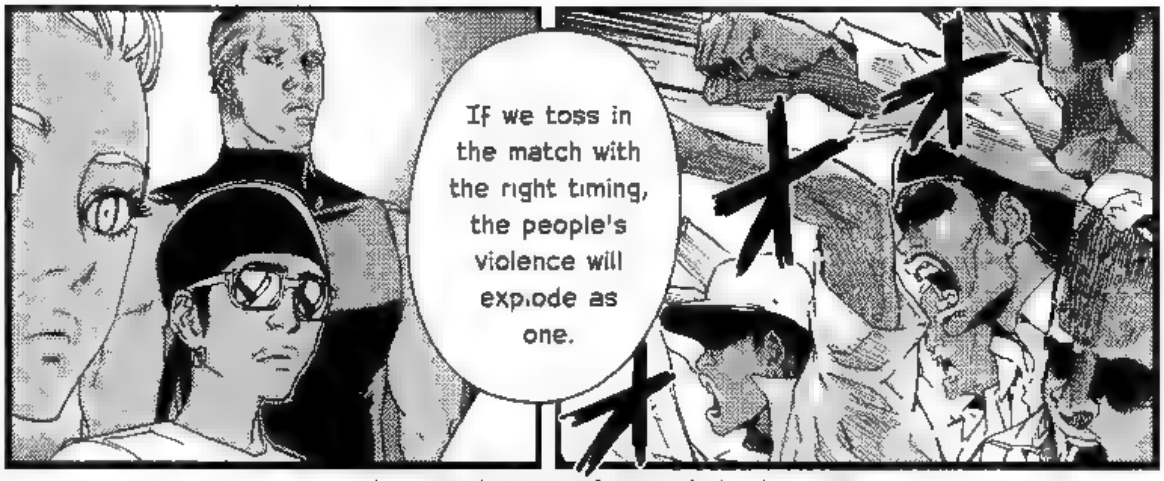
There's only one person capable of deciding the most important matters.
If simultaneous incidents occur in many places that they must deal with, what do the people in charge of those places do?
Within that "expectation" lies a blind spot.
Isn't that expected though?

If he makes the wrong command, he'll be punished for it.
And if they wait for his command, their response will be delayed. In such a situation, how should they function?
"What do they do"
Naturally, they turn to Zasid's command... right?
So you're saying we can target that weak spot?
Yes
No matter how much of a superman Zasid is, he can't comprehend the mindset and laxness of the lower class.
I don't really want to use the word "absolutely," but I'm "absolutely" sure that a failure will occur in their organization.

Even in Galboa, there's a huge divide between the rich and the poor.
Dis- pleasure is building up from the consecutive terrorist bombings.



Note: The original Japanese for "match" is "charcoa

If Zasid dies during that opportunity, the objective can be fulfilled.
It doesn't really matter whether the revolution succeeds or not.
A revolution?
but if it's putting Zasid into a spot he can't escape from without enough superior personnel, I'm sure that opportunity can be had.
We don't have a choice for the means, whether it be assassination or bombing, Generally speaking, Zasid's the prudent type not to give away his whereabouts, but... If he's put into that situation, his actions will be restricted.
Spread some rumours and incite an incident of unease.
Well no. We can hasten the circumstances a little.
So we just wait until then?

I'm forced to stay home everyday to care for my mother who has been sick for over 15 years.

informing Zasid...
That's right... We were hiding the details about Haruka's powers from Trump.
She predicted that something would break out, and by passing on those details to Zasid, she prevented the rebellion from happening, huh?

It'd be easy to run, but going along with this is the right move here.

Keh! You reap what you sow for betraying your own people!!

And even if there's a "no killing" rule, if you get into a position where you might be killed, do you really think there's someone who'll protect a guy like you!?

Why did you pick that this time?

It was prepared in the Unimog.

I was aiming for an aiuchi last time so I preferred a lighter one, but this time's different.

...Wow...

Suits you perfectly, but I can't believe Tooyama would get you it...

Is that it...!?

So this means Zasid has some plan for Tooyama...

This one's a war blade.

It's called the "Oni Hocho", the Devil's Kitchen Knife.

TL For more details, see https://goo.gl/Hyx4ZD

Do you have a chance of winning?

You're really gonna challenge that monster when you're this hurt?
……

...If you were a tactician, you wouldn't take any action unless you could see a chance of winning, right?

I don't want to be told that by some idiot who dived into the 24's headquarters with a huge injury.
Keh-

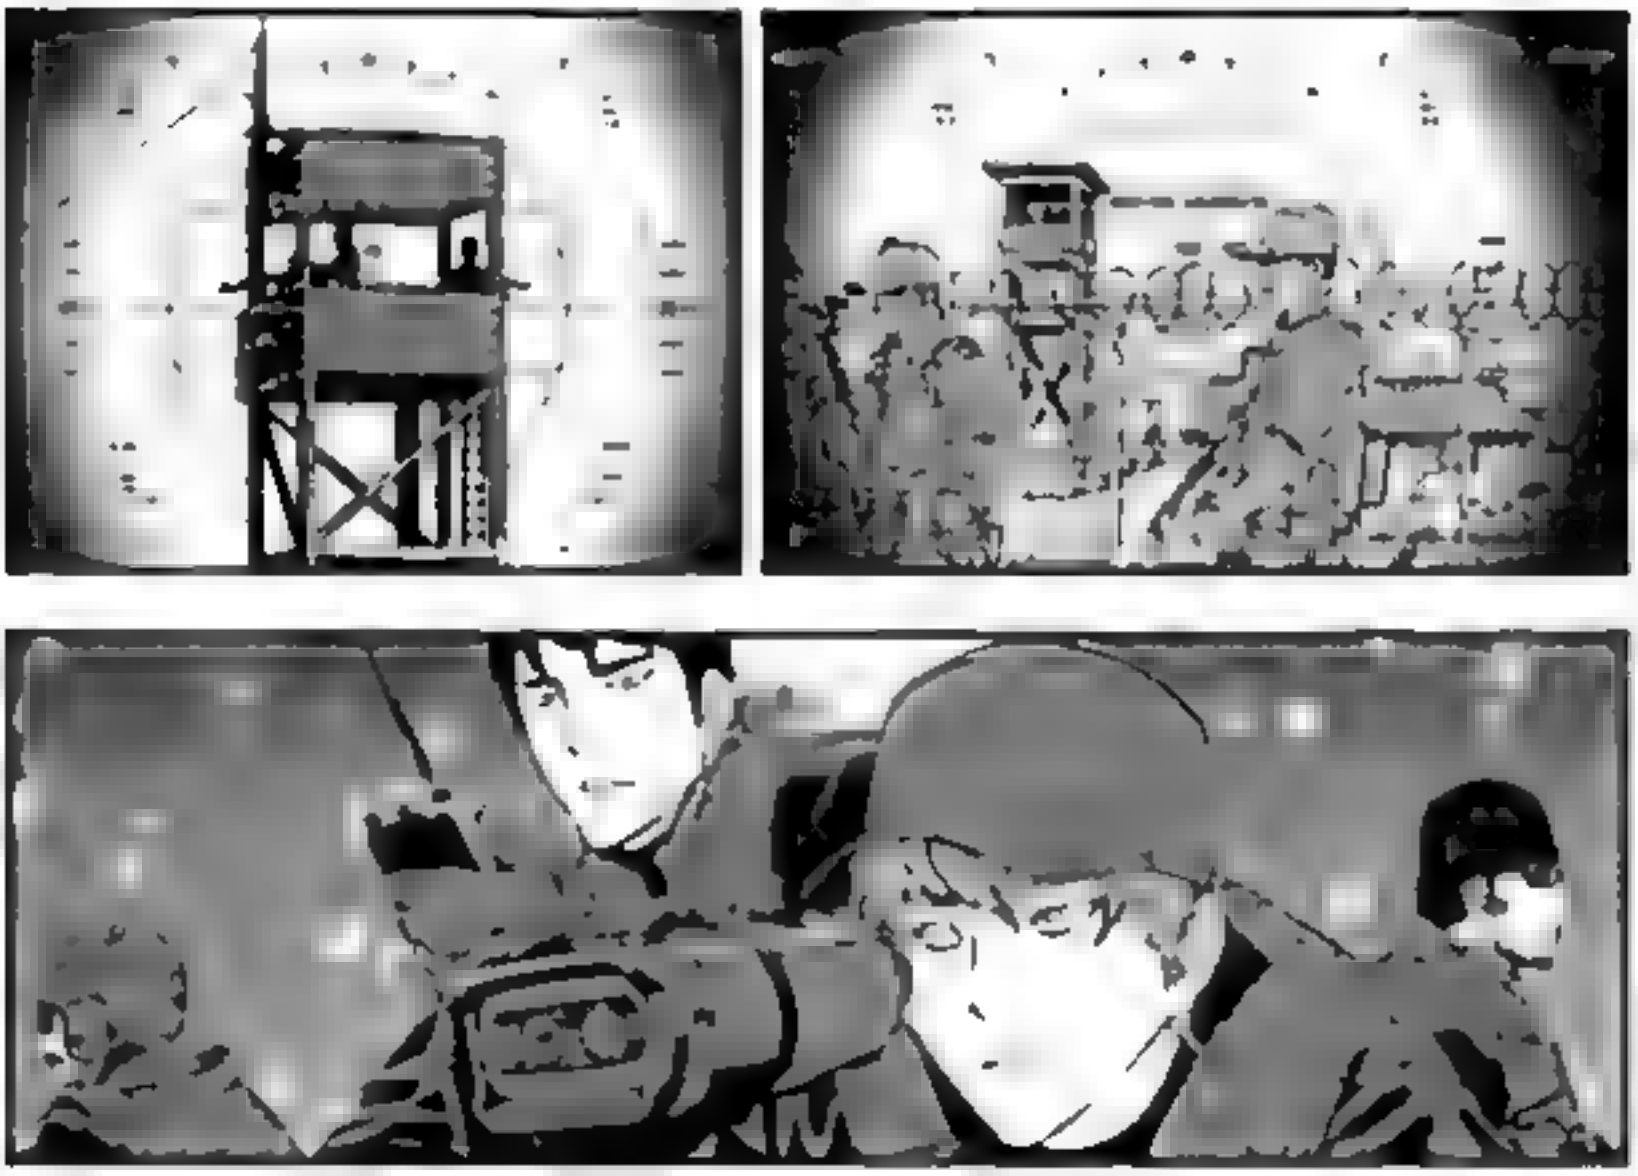
.....

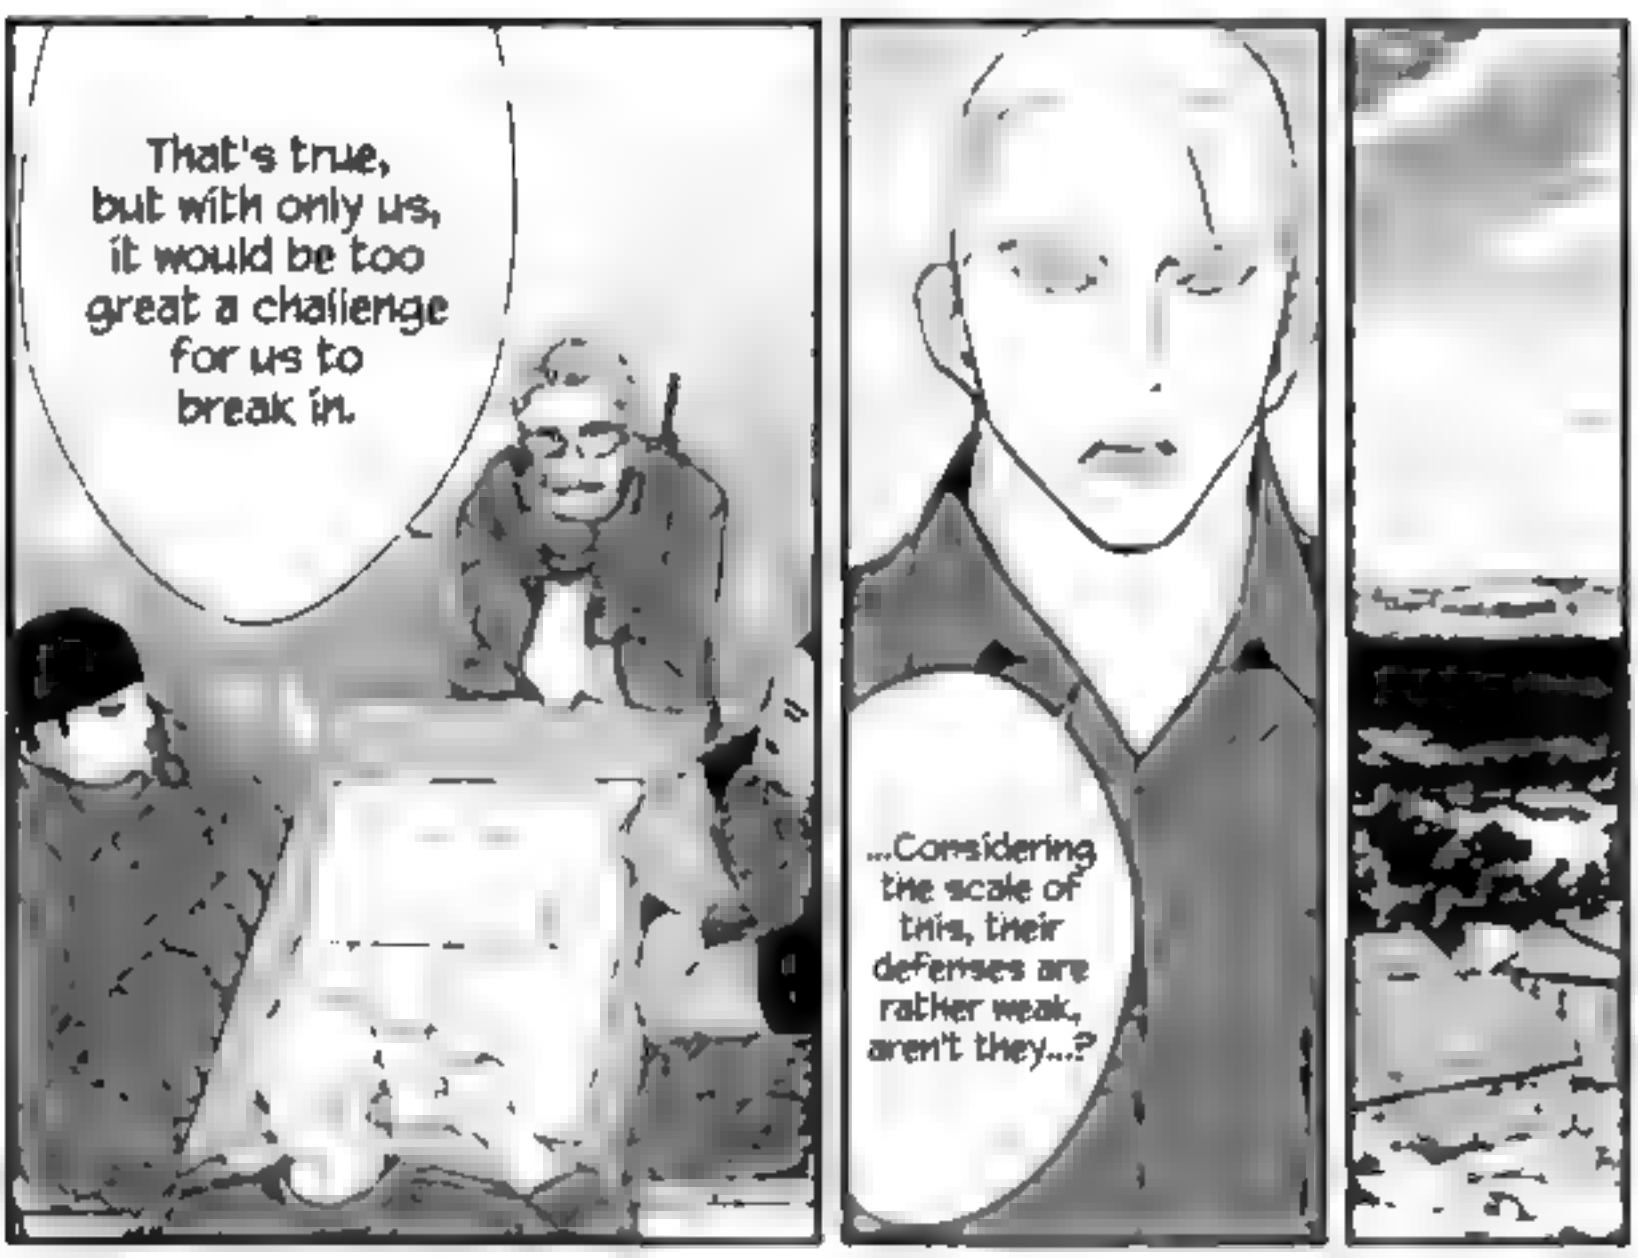
In the end, I'm just an ordinary martial artist who's simply interested in "the art."

Do you think I'd just go off and die without taking the skills I've learned seriously!?

I'll be able to figure something out!

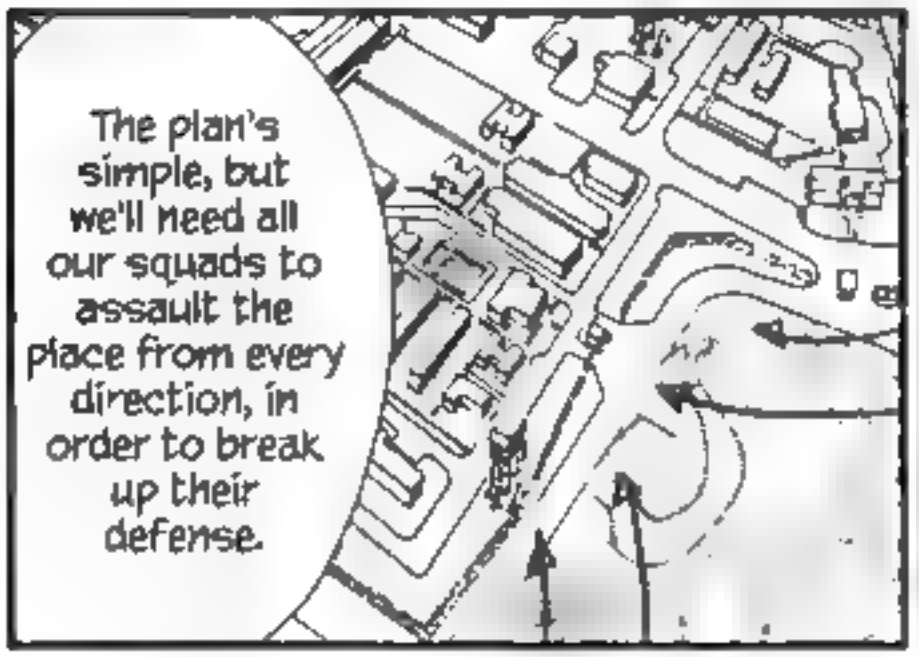
As long as I go all out in the last three minutes, it'll be enough.



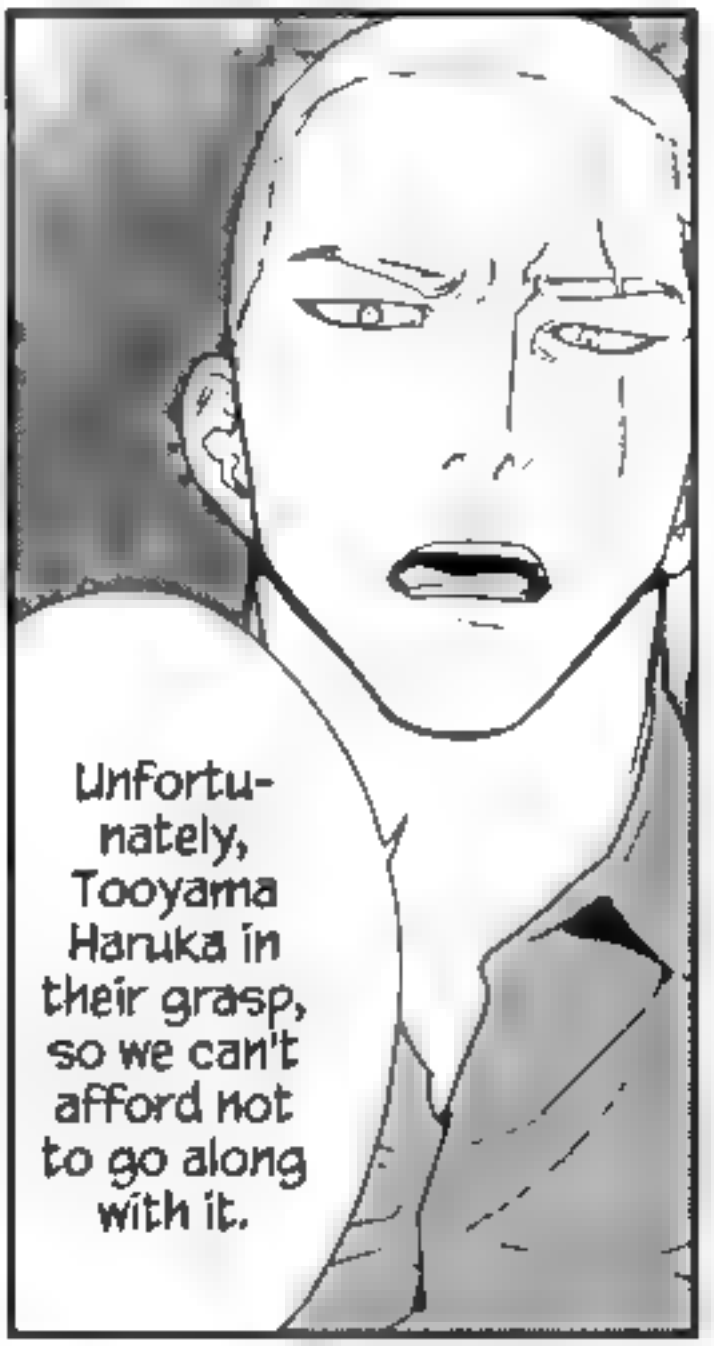


That's true, but with only us, it would be too great a challenge for us to break in.
...Considering the scale of this, their defenses are rather weak, aren't they...?

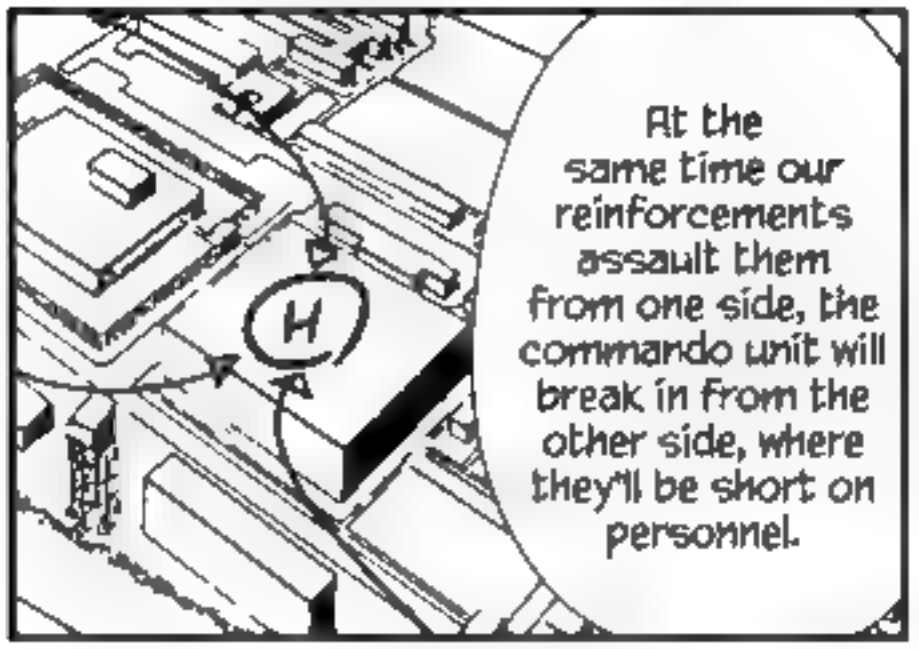
...It's a trap, huh?
This stinks.



The plan's simple, but we'll need all our squads to assault the place from every direction, in order to break up their defense.



Unfortu-nately, Tooyama Haruka in their grasp, so we can't afford not to go along with it.



H
At the same time our reinforcements assault them from one side, the commando unit will break in from the other side, where they'll be short on personnel.

We are those reinforcements.
If you can slip into the confusion, you can rescue Tooyama Haruka.

Our primary motive for coming to this country in the first place is the TPC. You mustn't forget that.

It's reasonable for the forces originally burdened with rescuing Tooyama Haruka to handle him, right?

We aren't the ones breaking in?

I think the WALL has a great chance of being able to defeat Zasid/ Us!

ガヤ ガヤ

Well then, everyone, to your posts!

I'd like you two to come back to the WALL for the time being as well.

That way we'll have more effective reinforcements. Have just a select few go in as the commando unit.

Understood.

As expected of you, Captain.

You're quite down-to-earth.

You realize I'm handling an armoured bike, right?

Hear that, Dai? Now's the chance for you to show your skills.

Everyone s being used as a decoy just for that, so go al out!!

Eh...!? You serious !?

Silly goose.

You're gonna dive in solo and rescue Haruka!

Ro-roger!

That said, our plans may change depending on what happens, so we might need you to mprovise!

Eh...?

"Other ambush-ers"?

The commando team needs to be careful of other ambushers.

They mustn't attack them.

.....

They'll definitely try to take advantage of this opportunity!

That's right.

...Well then,

with our current military power, there's no way we should get involved in that fight.

That's right. That's what Trump excels at.

...So that means infiltration, disturbance, and inteiligence... right?

You are to back them up as much as possible. Understood?

Your primary objective is protecting Gene, and then making sure Zasid is left to Hijikata.

Treat them as allies. You absolutely mustn't shoot them.

Also, you are forbidden from fighting anyone other than Zasid's army.

.....

Ah...!? Yeah...

...Igawa.

I was just tagging along with Mamoru-

Well actually,

I thank you for helping us this far even though you're not directly related to this.

This time, if even one of us survives, we're ready to compensate you for your help however you wish.

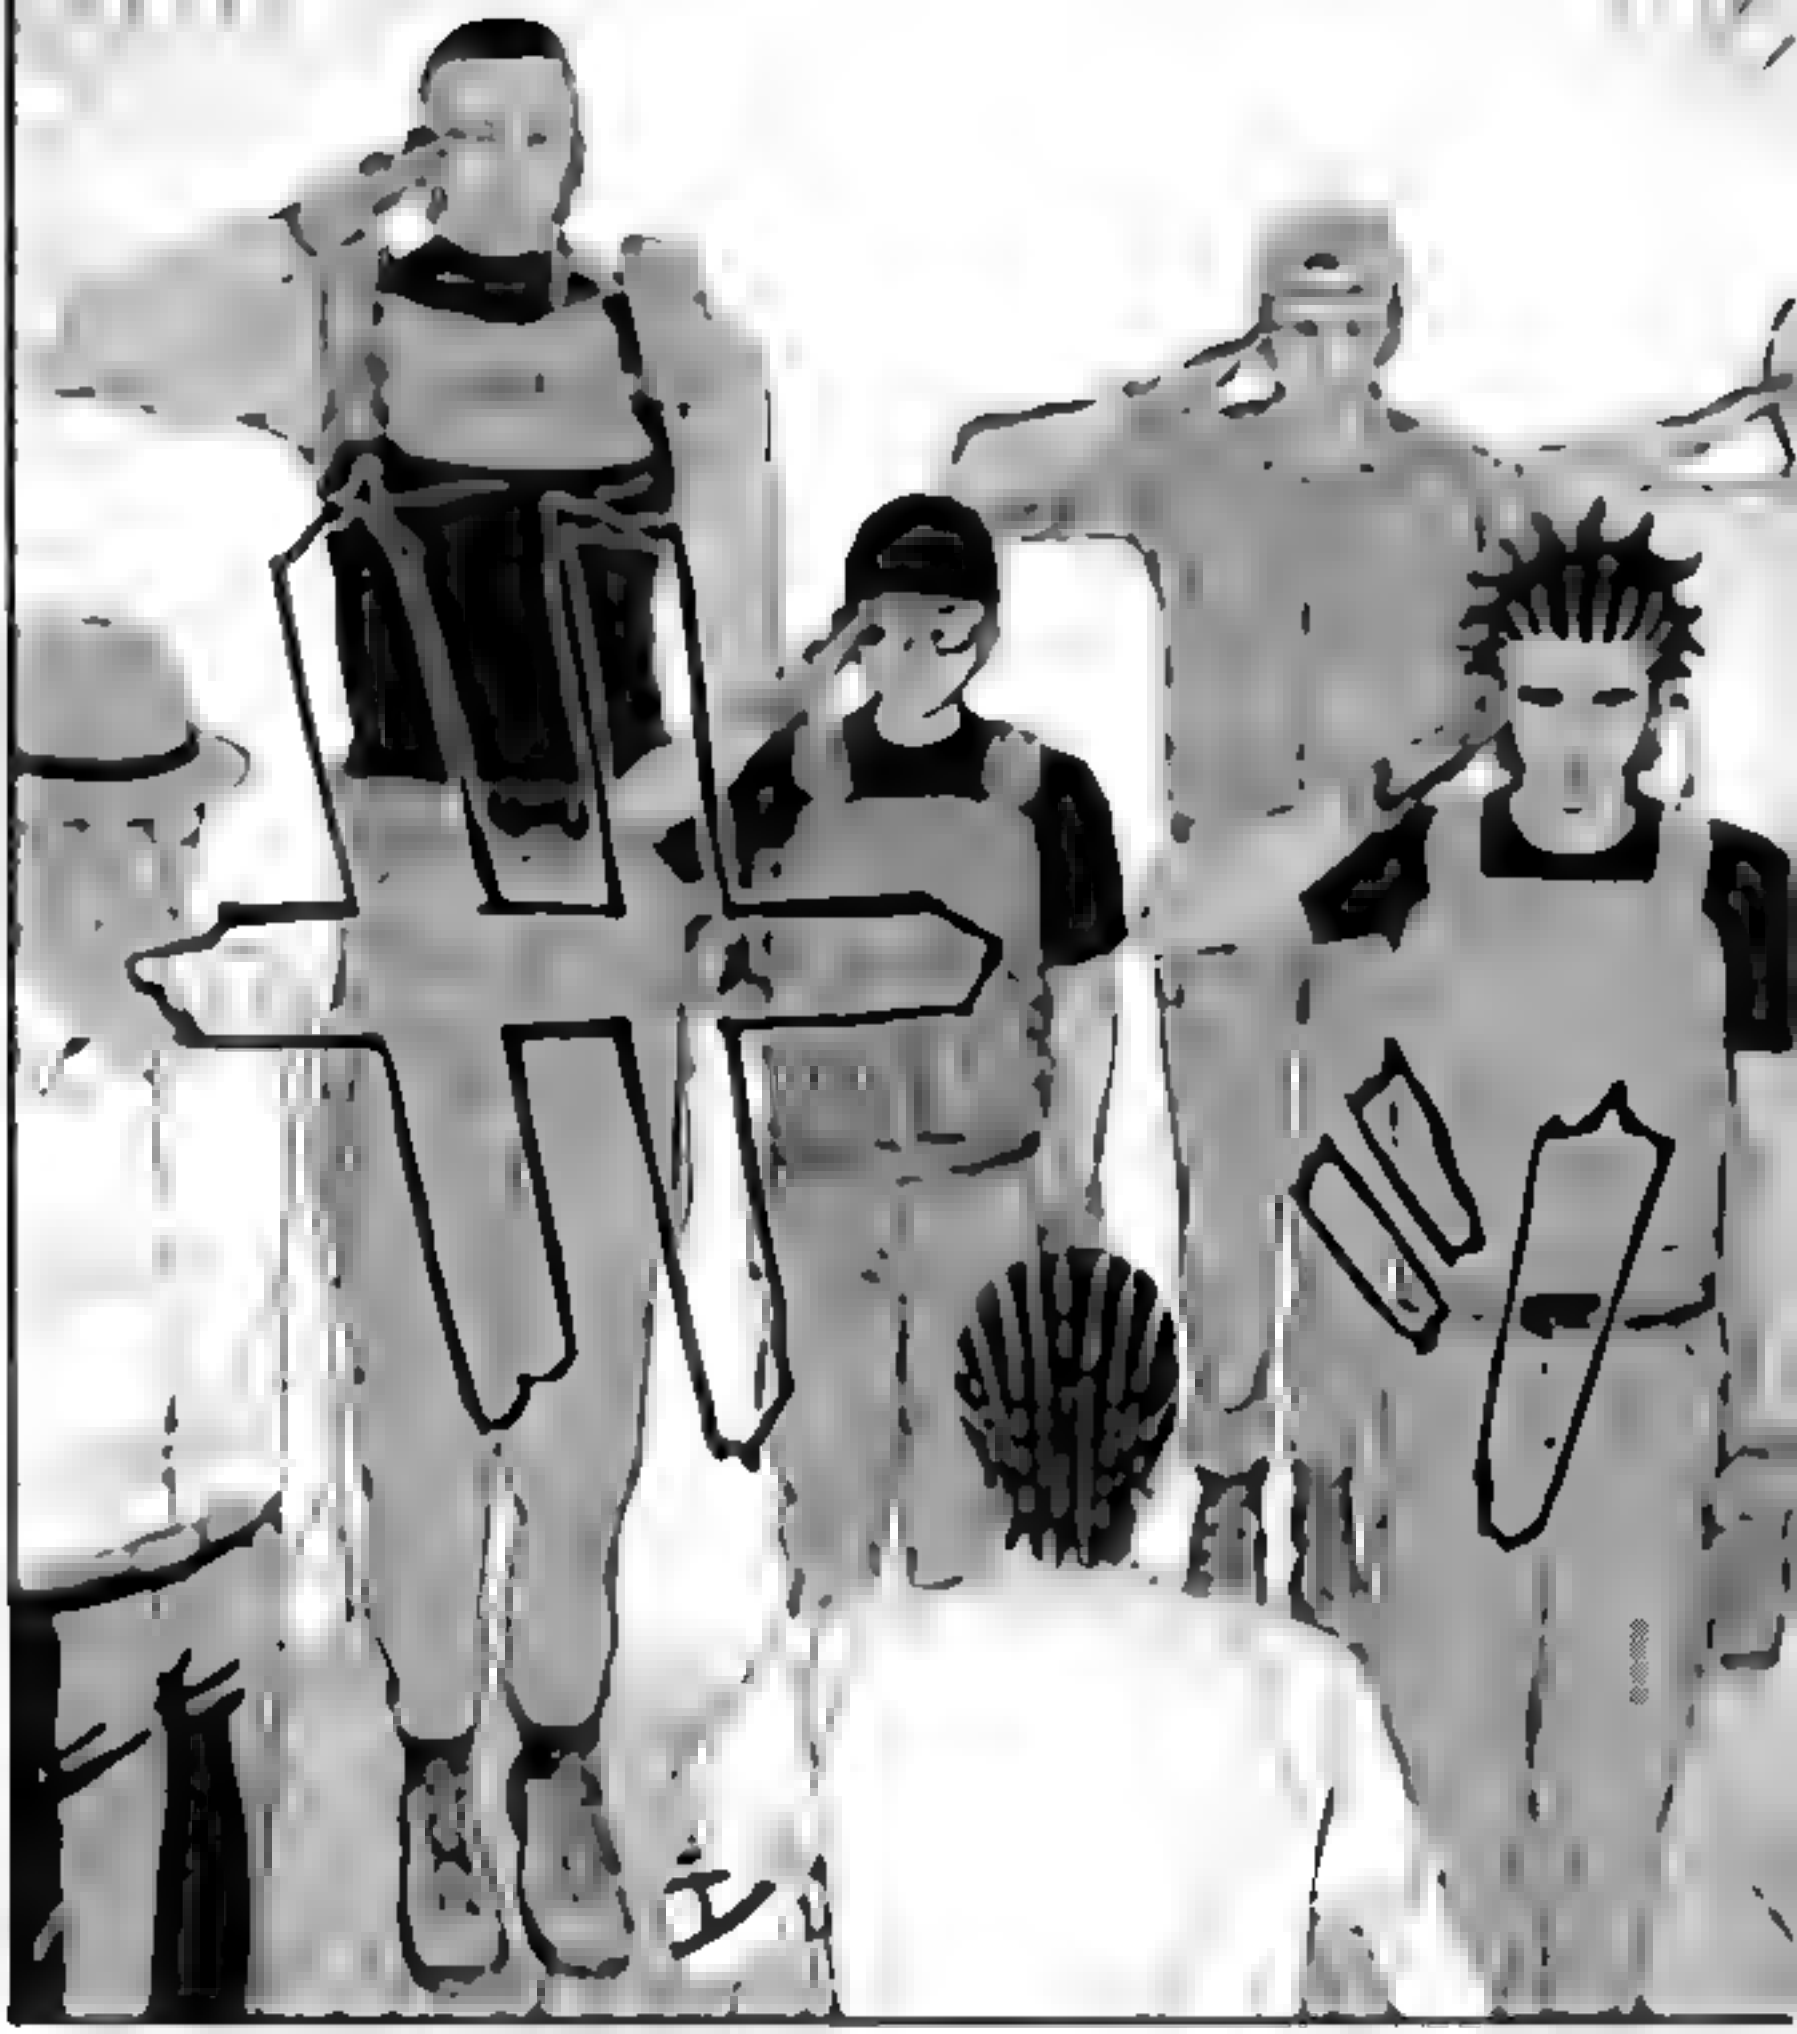
Even if that's true.../

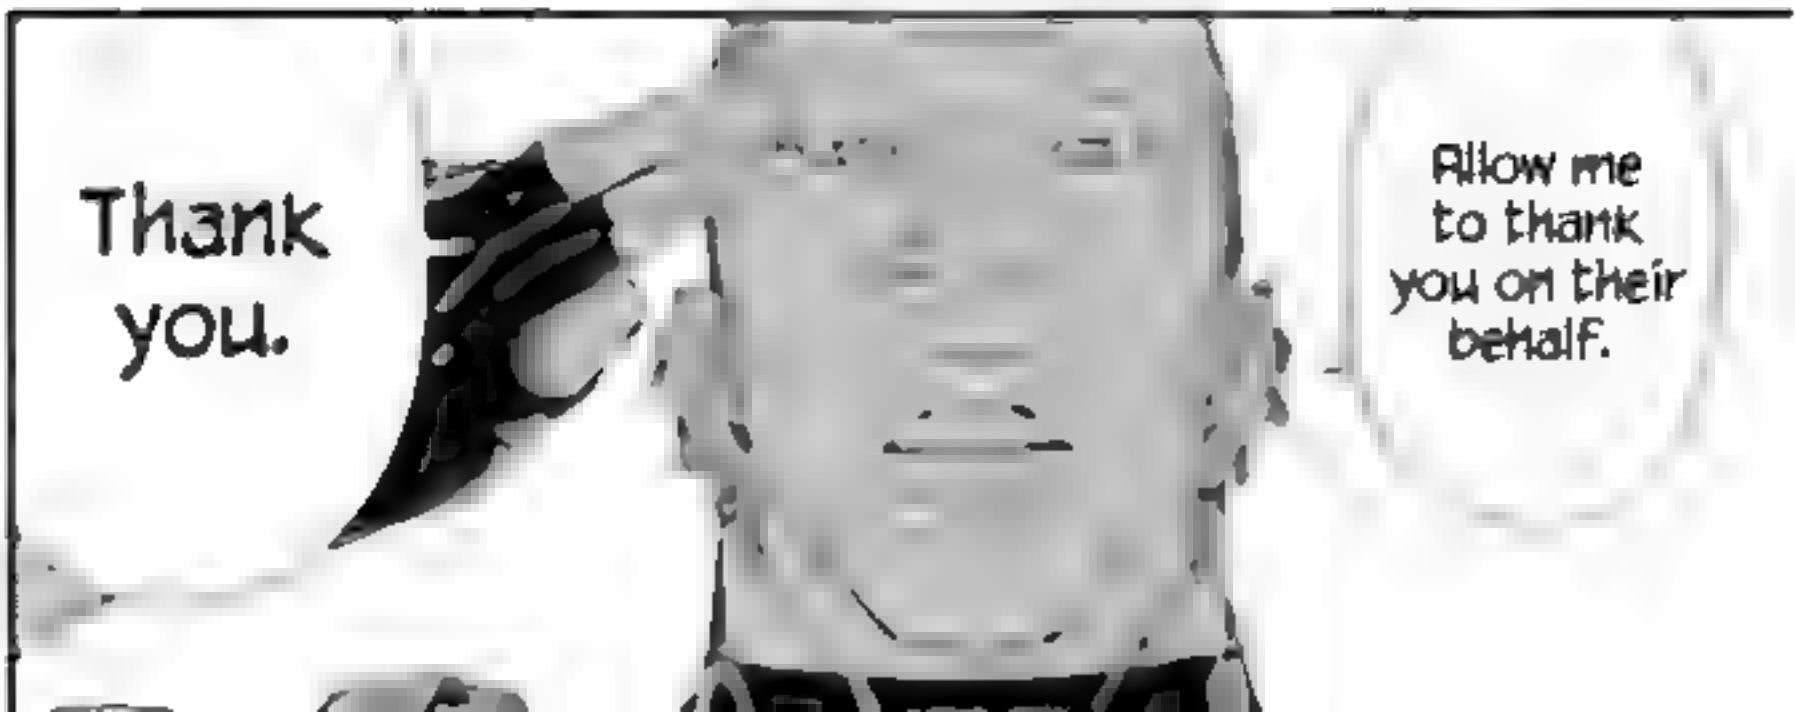
We will never forget your generosity.

...They plan on dying...!?

You all agree, right?

...No, but-





Thank you.
Allow me to thank you on their behalf.

...
...

I don't need to do something unnecessary like thanking him. He's been compensated for a long time now.
You-

If Shidavra, our sniper, is going to try to break in and act from within, obviously I need to support him.
I'm just... willing to go along with him for this last time.

Now then, if you will. Just as we planned.

To victory!

The Fighting's begun!

...Seems like it.

As I said, return fire as deemed appropriate, without leaving your posts.

Yes!!

It's a masquerade.
...Hmm, are you worried...?

...Am I wrong?

A gentle conflict where it only looks like nobody wants to kill their foes. An absurd situation.

With tens of thousands of bullets flying around, you can't be sure of everything.
...Even if that's so, mistakes will inevitably happen...
Even with rubber bullets, people will die if they're shot in a bad place.

If one predicts the possibility of killing, even among their allies, it poses a problem.

Yet, one must plan everything under the assumption that they will not be killing.

Unfortunately, that's at least what the situation will be like here.

Everyone treasures this human named "Tooyama Haruka" who possesses the power of foresight.

A burden that applies even to me!

However, this human, "Tooyama Haruka", is a being whose worth more than makes up for that burden.

This ridiculous event was created solely for that purpose.

.....

You are one of the few who are. You are not someone who should waste their time in a pointless experiment.

...There is hardly anyone in this world superior to myself...

Therefore, even if I'm just forcing her cooperation right now, this is the best way to achieve that.

If she can start to think like that, I'd happily end the experiment and even make her my foster daughter

.But, in order for that to happen, there is one other great obstacle..

Once I neutralize him, it will be easy enough to placate Haruka.

The existence of the man that Haruka risked her life to protect will only hinder my plan

If I can weaken that man and capture him alive,

I can have you entirely under my control

Begin!!

I'm forced to stay home everyday to care for my mother who has been sick for over 15 years.

Please excuse me
…Welcome, Professor

We've determined the cause of the strange situation here is due to a decision Zasid made after discovering Tooyama Haruka's true value.
I'd like you to watch over what happens here until the end.
Yes.
If he can make use of Tooyama Haruka's foresight, he'll be able to ferret out anyone that's stationed or lying in wait somewhere.
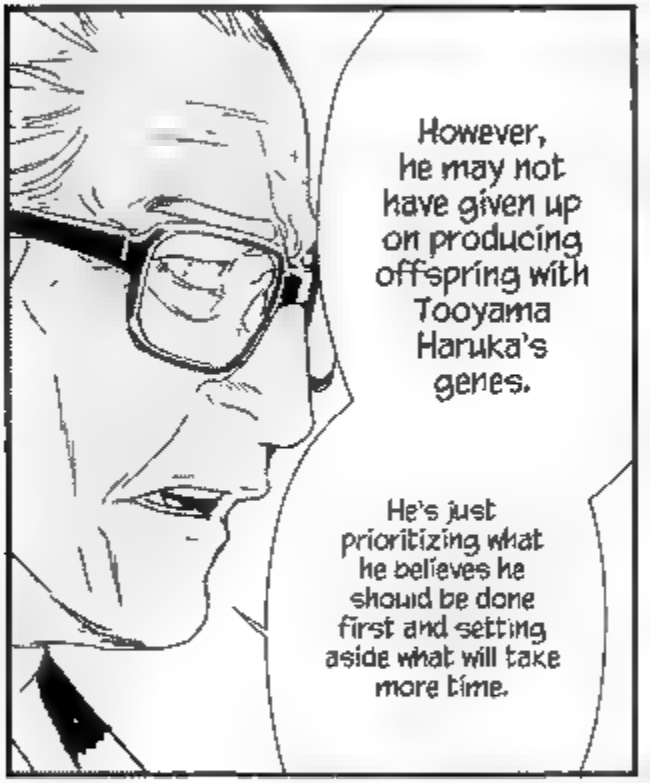
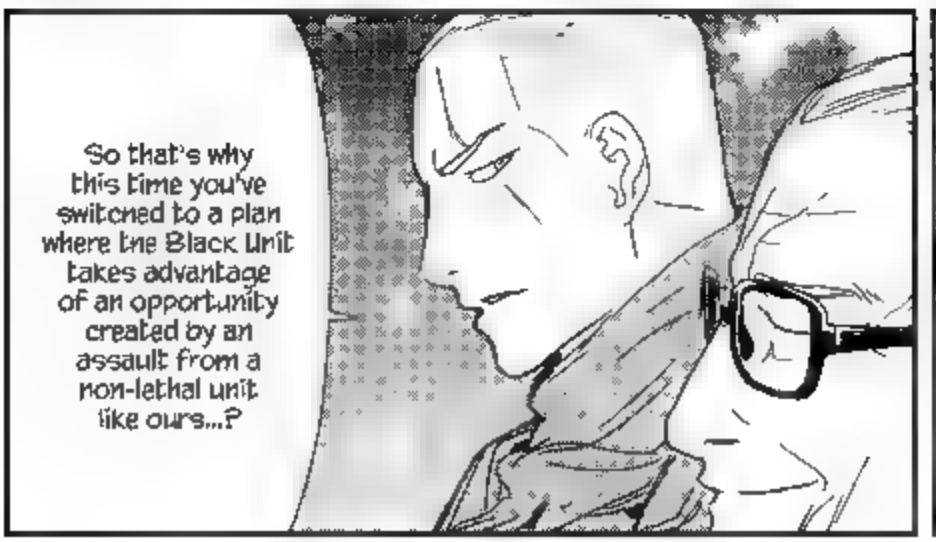
To him, it's a plan where "I can catch every single person who has the intention of opposing me, all at once."
If her intellect is on par with Zasid's, she'll easily uncover the people involved in the conspiracy by retracing any open connections.
Even if they chose not to take part but there is even a chance of them still doing so, Zasid will punish them.

Reality is, the domestic rebels, the Black Unit, and the Elements Network are now both being lured into the open at once.



However, he may not have given up on producing offspring with Tooyama Haruka's genes.
He's just prioritizing what he believes he should be done first and setting aside what will take more time.

Zasid's plan has changed to prioritize the use of Tooyama Haruka's foresight first.



So that's why this time you've switched to a plan where the Black Unit takes advantage of an opportunity created by an assault from a non-lethal unit like ours...?

we have no choice but to take advantage of the differences between their morals.
It's as you say. In order to separate the perception of Zasid, who won't hesitate to kill, from the precognitive ability of Tooyama Haruka, who is trying to avoid killing, and then beat him to the punch,

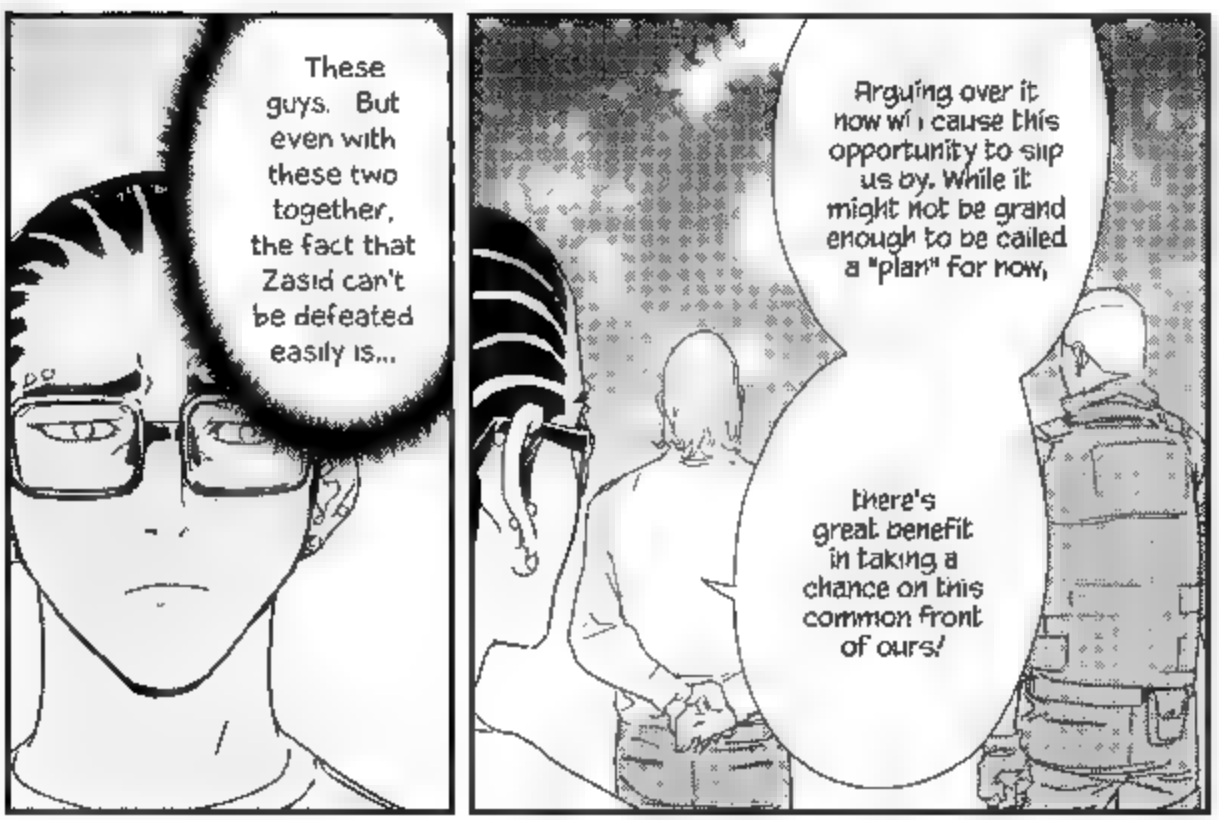
...So he saw through me...
For the most part, haven't you already been positioning your troops in anticipation of something like this happening?



These guys. But even with these two together, the fact that Zasid can't be defeated easily is...
Arguing over it now will cause this opportunity to slip us by. While it might not be grand enough to be called a "plan" for now, there's great benefit in taking a chance on this common front of ours!

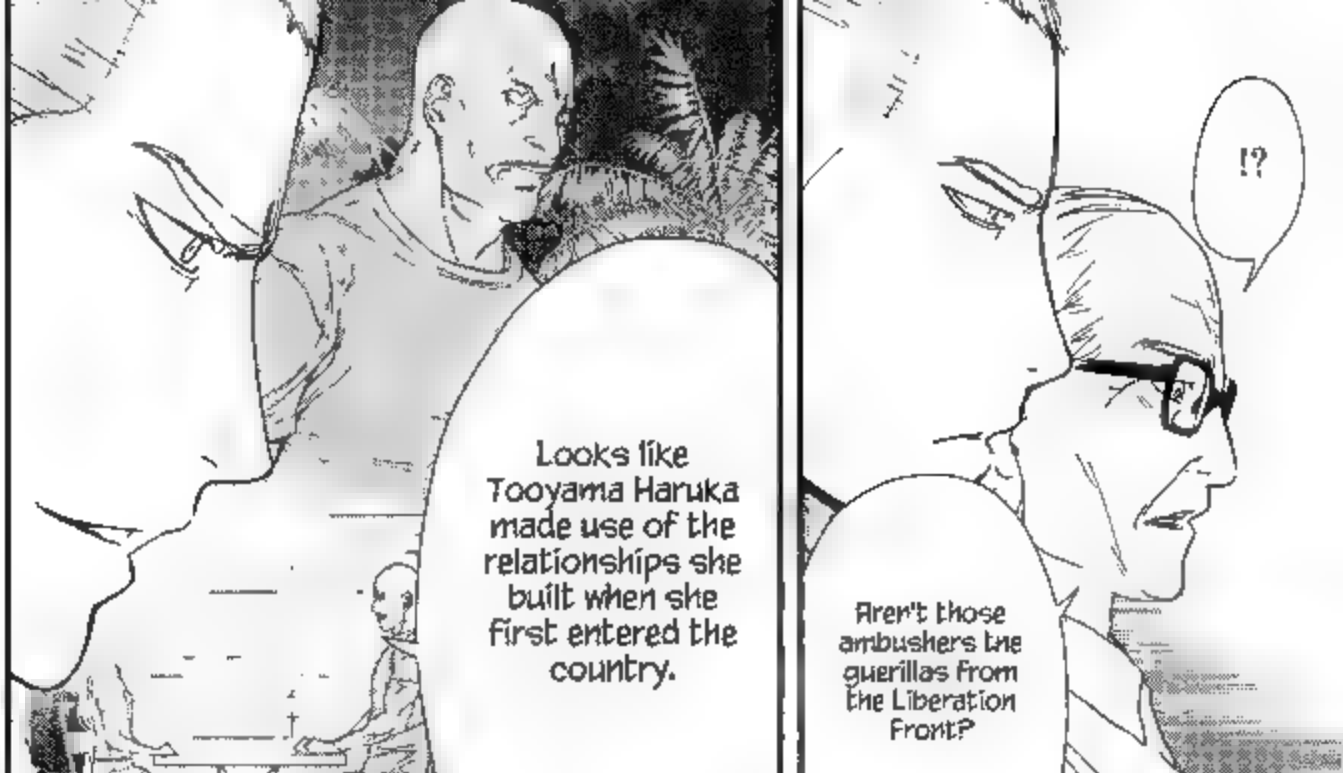
ダダダダ



Looks like Tooyama Haruka made use of the relationships she built when she first entered the country.

Aren't those ambushers the guerillas from the Liberation Front?

I can once again unify Galboa and Duhana into a single national power. That has always been my greatest desire.

The only issue would be whether or not I can finish things without either of them dying.

You defied my expectations and penetrated inside, hm?
From my thoughts, I figured you all would join up with the forces currently assaulting us from outside, but...
But, you still cannot defeat me.

This situation was inevitable. I wouldn't have been able to do anything even if I played dumb, you know. That probably would've failed, right?
It was Gene's doing after all, wasn't it?
